

Our Awakening Transcendence Is Occurring.....Now

Robert Hall

In my manuscript the concept of transcendence takes center stage. It delves into the profound shift in consciousness that occurs during moments of awakening. These moments are akin to glimpses beyond the ordinary, where the boundaries of self dissolve, and individuals connect with something greater. We are exactly as God created us and we just need to remember the beautiful implications of this Divine Truth.

-Bob

Preface

Our awakening transcendence is occurring now because of the magnificent power of our minds and forgiveness.

Ever try to remember a name and several days later it enters into your conscious thought? The reason this occurs is everything you have seen, heard, touched, tasted or smelled from the moment you were born is stored in your subconscious, which is your database. You asked, and your powerful mind finds the answer. Consider the advances in computer systems. You can ask search engines a question from your phone and instantly receive the answer. Computer technology is exploding and growing at an exponential rate. Our minds are absolutely incredible.

Why is forgiveness so very important? When someone slaps you in the face either physically or verbally they expect to be slapped back. When you instantly forgive and don't slap back, you're sending an extremely strong and significant message. You have shown them nothing they can do can hurt you in any way. Perhaps if they're on the receiving end in the future they won't slap back in remembrance of how you reacted. If you have stolen, forgive yourself and steal no more. If you have been rude and angry, forgive yourself and these emotions will decrease permanently. Ever unemotionally listen to two people arguing? Each is not listening, really listening to the other because they're thinking of a response. If you come out of an extreme argument and fail to get your point across, do you feel good? Arguing is pointless and serves no positive purpose. So forgive yourself and argue no more. Most importantly, forgive yourself for not believing God Is.

My parents were old enough to be my grandparents, Dad was born in 1893. We never attended church, but I was extremely fortunate to be raised in a loving home in much simpler times. As a young child, Mom taught me a little prayer, "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray to you Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I awake, I pray for you Lord my soul to take." I recall young friends having a discussion concerning the existence of God. One said, "Well, where did God come from? Nobody can answer, so I don't believe it." I certainly could not and still can't answer such a question but still retain my belief in a higher power. In school, we're taught the Big Bang Theory. Astronomers believe the universe began as a singular point and expanded to the size it is today and is still expanding. So everything came from virtually nothing? This never made much sense to me. At All. We're also taught that most scientists believe that RNA, or something similar to RNA, was the first molecule to self-replicate and begin the process of evolution that led to more advanced forms of life, including human beings. What? So this is the answer to millions and millions and millions of aquatic creatures, birds, animals, and humans? Scientists believe the earliest life forms we know of were microscopic organisms, microbes, that left signals of their presence in rocks about 3.7 billion years old. These scientific theories only strengthened my belief in a higher power. If you think about and study these believed explanations of all life everywhere, you may come to the conclusion the theories are false.

A Course In Miracles by Helen Schucman is the most profound, truthful and enlightened spiritual manuscript ever written.

Today, Christians are looking for the return of Jesus. He has returned via the writings in A Course In Miracles. Dr. Helen Schucman was a clinical and research psychologist and wrote the text from 1965 to 1970. Schucman said that the book had been dictated to her, word for word, via a process of "inner dictation" from Jesus. At first, Helen thought she was going insane. She asked this voice some very difficult questions, all answered correctly. The manuscript has 1249 pages and I have studied and written about it for 15 years. Jesus dictated the text to Helen and explained what the Bible and his earthly ministry truly mean.

There are many manuscripts of the Bible, it's a collection of 66 books written by about 40 different authors over approximately 1,500 years. These authors came from diverse backgrounds and wrote in different languages on three different continents. The work has been rewritten hundreds of times, thus many of the writings are simply not true. For example, Romans 9:21 says, "Does not the potter have the right to make from the same lump of clay one vessel for special occasions and another for common use?" The potter is a reference to God. The vessel is us. "One vessel for special occasions" means Heaven. "Another for common use" means Hell. In other words, if one lives a loving, caring, prayerful life but was made for common use; that person is going to experience agony in Hell forever and there is nothing he/she can do about it. This is utter nonsense. How could the ultimate God of Love make a place of eternal torment?

One woman wrote the Course. I have studied this book for years and have found no untruths. None. Jesus explains in The Course that his last name is not Christ, it's Jesus of Nazareth. Furthermore, a bit of trivia. He was married. Under Jewish Law, only a spouse could anoint a body. Mary was his wife. He had perfectly understood he was one with Christ. So are we. The whole purpose of this Course is to teach you that the ego is unbelievable and will forever be unbelievable. By accepting the Atonement for yourself, you are deciding against the belief that you can be alone, thus dispelling the idea of separation and affirming your true identification with the entire Kingdom, as it's part of you. This identification is beyond doubt, as it is beyond belief. Your wholeness has no limits because you are Eternal.

I'm 71 and have been an avid reader for years. I've read countless books about religions and spirituality and used to teach the Bible. Religion is for those afraid of going to hell, spirituality is for those who have been there. I'm the latter. However, I am a "Christian of a different color" because I do not believe Jesus died for our sins as it is absolutely impossible to sin against God. The reason for his dying on the cross was to prove death is an illusion via his resurrection, thus proving we live forever. Now you may think, there is no proof of his resurrection. I agree, however, his body has never been found and the reason Easter is still celebrated after 2000 years is because it's true. According to the Biblical Archaeology Society, the tomb of Jesus was sealed with a stone. The archaeological evidence suggests that the tomb of Jesus, the unused tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, would have been sealed with a cork-shaped stone. 98% of stones used to close tombs in Jesus' day were square block stones. These were simple slabs shaped something like a bolt, with one end designed to provide a close fit for the small opening forming the doorway of the tomb. The larger remainder of the stone had a flange, so it would rest against the outside surface of the tomb. Other researchers believe Jesus's tomb was sealed with a circular stone that slid into a groove. If so, how could 3 women possibly move this?

Hell, Satan and demons are our ego's lie to put the enemy "out there" and do not exist. Our true enemy is our own ego. A Course in Miracles offers a unique perspective on hell. Let's explore its teachings: Hell as a Figment of Imagination: ACIM asserts that hell is purely a figment of our tormented imagination. It is not a real place but rather a projection of our guilt for perceived sins against God and others. The Course suggests that we have internalized the ego's message so well that, regardless of our conscious beliefs, deep down, we all believe in hell and fear its existence.

Hell as the Ego's Teaching: According to ACIM, the ego constantly whispers that we are guilty sinners deserving eternal punishment. It teaches that hell is our inevitable destination, a place of eternal separation from God. This belief in hell is inescapable for those who identify with the ego and accept its verdict of guilt.

This World as Hell: Surprisingly, ACIM states that this world is hell.

It describes hell as what the ego has made of the present. Our sense of separation from God and the suffering we experience here align with the concept of hell. ACIM proposes that we secretly or openly perceive this world as a form of hell.

In summary, ACIM challenges traditional notions of hell, emphasizing that it is not a physical place but rather a mental construct. It invites us to question our beliefs and recognize that our perception of hell is rooted in our own guilt and separation from love and truth.

The 14 Core Teachings Of The Course

ACIM -1: This world is not real. God did not create this world nor even know of its existence. The entire universe is an illusion dreamt by the Son of God.

ACIM -2: Pure non-duality: Anything that comes from God must be exactly like Him. God could not create anything that is not perfect, or else He wouldn't be perfect.

ACIM -3: Consciousness is the domain of the ego. Consciousness was conceived after we dream of separation.

ACIM -4: Spirit is unchanging, perfect, and eternal. This is the state of Heaven.

ACIM -5: Truth is not different for everyone. Truth is truth.

ACIM -6: There are no levels in Heaven. All conflict arises from the concept of levels. We are either enlightened and back in reality with God, or still dreaming of separation. Only life in Heaven is real.

ACIM -7: Life in all its myriad forms or possibilities is already scripted at the instant of separation. The only choice is in our mind, where we decide to identify with the Holy Spirit or with the ego, when interpreting each moment.

ACIM -8: Life in this world is mad/insane. Nothing makes sense in this world. The world was made as an attack on God.

ACIM -9: There is only one higher self — the Holy Spirit. Also known as the voice for God, our memory of God, or the reflection of God's love in our dream.

ACIM -10: Collectively, we are the Son of God. God created only One Son of God. Technically speaking, there is no "we" since the separation into fragments did not occur.

ACIM -11: There is no evil or devil, only illusory madness projected by our ego mind and thankfully, they are not real.

ACIM -12: Every attack is an attack upon ourselves. We project our unconscious guilt onto (dream) figures or situations which seemingly attack us. So now they are guilty, not us. The cause of our guilt arises from our imagined separation from God.

ACIM -13: Life is a lesson. Every opportunity is used by the Holy Spirit to teach forgiveness to undo the ego mind.

ACIM -14: Time and space are illusions, and Spirit has nothing to do with them.

Chapter 1

The Most Magnificent Spiritual Truth I've Ever Read

God did not make this universe; the Sons of God (Christ) did. They had been given all the creative powers of the Father and wondered what it would be like to live in a universe of time and space that was separate from God and based upon duality rather than unity. The Course calls this a “mad idea”. For the first time, Christ had an idea that was not shared by God, and Christ knew it. He imagined what it would be like to be apart from his Creator. Forgetting to laugh about that silly idea, feeling guilty, he experienced something new. Fear.

The first ego was created. The mind believes that it is completely on its own. God knows absolutely nothing about this, since in nonduality there is only a constant, unchangeable Love. Christ made this universe through the Big Bang, composed of billions of fragments to hide from the supposed wrath of a vengeful Father. The idea of duality could not be carried out in God's reality, so we created a dream universe of illusion and entered it as if falling asleep and dreaming. The trouble was that we went into such a deep state of sleep that we had no awareness that we were dreaming, so we accepted the universe of illusion as real and forgot that we had a true home in the Celestial Realm.

The Course says the story of Adam symbolized what happened to us Yet the Bible says that a deep sleep fell upon Adam, and nowhere is there a reference to his waking up. This created a barrier in communication between the Father and the Son so deep that God decided a correction was necessary. God's extension outward, though not His completeness, is blocked when the Sonship does not communicate with Him as one. So He thought, "My children are asleep and must be awakened." So God wanted to awaken His Sons. But there was a major problem.

Whatever God places His attention on becomes as if it is real. If God entered the dream to redeem his Sons, then the dream would become real to Him as well, and he would also be trapped. There would be the risk of both the Father and the Son becoming eternally separated from their true home, eternally losing their identity.

To solve the problem and allow God to keep his attention focused on Reality, He created a special agent, The Holy Spirit, that could be a bridge between the two states of existence. So God created the Holy Spirit, Who was God's answer to the separation. He has created the Holy Spirit as the Mediator between perception and knowledge. Without this link with God, perception would have replaced knowledge forever in your mind. With this link with God, the perception will become so changed and purified that it will lead to understanding. The Holy Spirit entered the collective sleeping mind of Christ. A first Christ was healed and woke up in Heaven. In other words, we are All split off as "part" of the One Christ Mind. The Course repeatedly asserts there can only be one Son. Unity can only create unity. Multiplicity cannot originate from Oneness. If all His creations are His Sons, everyone must be an integral part of the whole Sonship. The Sonship in its oneness transcends the sum of its parts. Therefore, the term Sons of God is used by Jesus for convenience in addressing his students as they believe they are. On the other hand, the Son of God is the term used to denote who we truly are as Christ, the Identity of Oneness we shall awaken to after our dream of multiplicity is undone.

Now that we have been informed of the most profound spiritual truth ever written, let us reason together to begin and determine what this actually means in the year 2024. A Course In Miracles states that it is even beyond its teachings to fully explain what Love actually is. However, with logic and reasoning we are given glimpses. Let's discuss a Love that Is absolutely perfect. A Love that Is beyond purity, immeasurably magnificent and beautiful, immense total power, all knowing, all seeing, everywhere, outside of time, forever unchanging, cannot conceive of any loss, eternal, always giving, an unlimited joy and contentment and happiness. Totally complete in and of Itself, with a perfect light that extends to all existence. Forever. We are a part of this. Every time we hold open a door, give up our place in line, give back too much change, turn the other cheek, help the elderly, give good advice, help the poor, go the extra mile, we unconditionally love.

Chapter 2

An African Mother

Let's say you're an African mother living in the jungle in the year 1694. You've been with your man 17 years and have 4 children. You work hard and are 48 years old. Not easy raising 4 children and a sometimes childish husband in this sweltering hot environment. All in all, life is good for you, and you laugh much more than you cry.

One day, some white folks come into your village who are missionaries. They seem like nice people who have great food and smile a lot. They begin explaining about some man named Jesus who lived thousands of years ago. They tell you he walked on water, the blind could see, the deaf could hear, the paralyzed could walk, he raised the dead, and after he was hung on wood to die, he raised himself 3 days later. You're thinking, what? Now, these well-meaning folks tell you he died for your sins, and you must believe this, or you're going to eternal hell. You ask, "What is sin?" They tell you. "What is hell?" They tell you. You go to bed that night thinking WHAT? This whole stuff sounds pretty "out there" to you. Who on earth came up with all this?

You've lived a hard life but a good one. You have no enemies, many friends, loving children and a good hardworking and caring man. Why on earth did these people tell you about this Jesus person? You've made some mistakes, but you've been informed these are sins. You asked what this sin stuff is about, and they informed you that you've sinned against God. You asked, "What's God?" They tell you God made you. You had thought all this time that your parents had made you. Now this God who you have never seen is furious with you and is going to send you to a place of unending pain and misery. Forever. However, you've been told some good news. All you have to do is believe in Jesus, who died for the sin you didn't know you had done.

So, now you're thinking, this God sent his only son to earth and commanded him to endure torture, suffering, and death? You don't want anything to do with any of this nonsense. You had even begun to feel guilty about mistakes you were informed were sins. You had never felt guilty before and certainly don't appreciate the feeling. You truly like these white people and are a good judge of character. You never lie and always tell the truth. The missionaries ask you if you believe in Jesus. You tell them you'd rather not, as you were doing better before thinking about their so-called truths. They left.

Years later, you reach a nice old age of 94 and die in your sleep. Where are you now? Atheists will say "in the dirt". Born again Christians, "Eternal Hell." I certainly feel the atheists have a much better response. There's a 3rd most glorious answer, "Enjoying the magnificent perfection and love of Heaven, Forever."

Chapter 3

Miracles I've Experienced

In the 1970s I was a pouring floor foreman in charge of pouring five, thirty ton heats a night. I worked a steady midnight shift. Buckeye Steel Castings in Columbus, Ohio, at that time, had the highest fatality rate of any industrial facility in the nation. Old industrial foundry, built in the eighteen-nineties.

Management had temporarily put me on the day shift to oversee the mold master. This was the machine that made the smaller castings. We made couplers, frames, axle housings, and bolsters for the railroad industry, our biggest customer. Our largest casting was a fifty-ton pipe cap, which drove the pipe into the sea for the oil industry.

In a foundry, there is what is called facing sand. If you put your hand into the sand, you would see a perfect impression of your hand. This sand would be put into molds, the castings, which is where the molten steel is poured. The sand was made in equipment called maulers, about one-fifth of a mile down from the mold master. The sand was poured onto a continuous running belt, one yard wide, three stories up. The sand, when reaching the mold master, would hit a plow which would direct the sand into a chute, dropping three stories below to the equipment.

This day is when my tragedy occurred. The plow jammed in the up position; thus the sand would not go into the chute, putting the mold master into downtime. I called maintenance on my walkie-talkie, but they were all busy. So I decided to try to fix it. I climbed the stairs, three stories up, walked along the catwalk, and came to the plow. Simple fix. An air valve had jammed, I put a screwdriver into the valve releasing the air, and the problem was solved. I called the sand department to start up the equipment. I walked the one-fifth mile down the catwalk to see if the sand was being made. This is when I made the most horrible mistake of my life, to date.

In a foundry, there are overhead cranes. They run on two railroad tracks. One track is on the south side, the other track is on the north side. There is a huge pulley, with a hook, that lifts the thirty-ton ladles filled with molten steel. There are bumpers on the cranes about three yards long to protect against damage if it would run into the second crane. This is difficult to explain to one who has never seen this type of equipment. I hope you get the general idea.

At the spur of the moment, I sat on the railroad track 3 stories in the air that the crane runs on to get a better view if the sand was running. I looked in the crane cab about thirty yards to my left to see if the crane man was there. Empty. He had been bending down. I had on safety glasses, which gave no peripheral vision. The next thing that happened was the crane bumper hit me and started to crush. The operator had seen me out of the corner of his eye as he was looking at the ladle three stories below, and plugged it, which stopped the crane. A Miracle.

He somehow saw me where I had no business being. A thirty-ton, fifty-thousand horsepower crane doesn't just immediately stop, there is a drift. If the operator had waited a split second longer, I would have been cut in two. The bumper was on me and off. It snapped my left leg femur in two. I went into shock and passed out. I was in the hospital for three months, off work for a year. I have a plate in my left leg, a bolt in my hip.

The next miracle occurred several years later. I had finally quit the foundry and accepted a much safer job selling appliances and televisions. I had been indulging in a lot of LSD on my days off. One cannot do acid two days in a row, as the second day is not as powerful. Over the years, I have tripped hundreds of times, never a bad experience. I have never sold it, just for personal consumption. For me, it has always been a very spiritual experience. I have never recommended anyone to try it. Today, I have not tripped in years. I drink 2 beers a night to help me sleep. At seventy-one years old, no longer sought after. So these writings are not the result of any mind-altering substance.

I had two days off work and a friend, Joe, asked me if I would be interested in buying a four-finger bag of pure PCP from the chemist who made it, for one hundred dollars. This is a horse tranquilizer. Sure, why not? I had no idea. After what occurred over the following days, I could say this. Comparing LSD to PCP, LSD is a shot of beer, and PCP is a fifth of whiskey. PCP is one of the most absolutely horrible drugs in existence.

I'm driving back to my apartment, Joe is sitting next to me. He snorted a big line. Instantly, he said, "Hallsey", my nickname, "Where are we going?" "Back to my apartment." "Where?" "Back to my apartment." "Hallsey, where are we going?" "Back to my apartment." "Where is my dad?" "I don't know, Joe". He went quiet. Wow! I was dating a lady, went into the apartment and told her this stuff was very powerful. We both snorted a very small line. Instantly, everything went euphoric. Surrounded by white light. After a half hour, I wondered where Joe was. I went out to the car, he was drenched in sweat. He hadn't been able to open the door. He said he had been out in the universe. He crawled across the street, on all fours, like a dog. He had urinated on himself. He came into the apartment and straight armed my oak coffee table straight over his head. Unbelievable strength. Then both JoJo and Joe were gone. What?

Over the next two days, I'm snorting a little every four hours or so. I can handle this. Didn't sleep. I was very wrong. I went to work Friday morning, so high, I didn't know I was high. I worked at corporate headquarters, which also had a sales floor. I found out, after the fact, that I was going to be promoted to store manager. I was dismissed. Here is precisely what happened.

My first customers were two men from a company called Stuart Sandwiches, looking to buy a used sixty-nine-dollar freezer. We had an open-to-buy list, where customers with a good buying history could take the product and pay later. I had looked at the wrong list and naturally didn't see the name. I walked upstairs into the vice president's office, which I had never done before. He was in the middle of a meeting and explained the situation. I told him there was a man named Stuart Sandwiches. It's a company.

He asked me to not let them take it. I went back down, told them, and they went ballistic. I just stood there, looking at the floor. A fellow salesman came over and peacefully resolved the situation. I went and sat at my desk. I opened a King James Bible my mother had given me. The words became extremely “pornographic”, vial, threatening and menacing. I closed the Bible. A couple of minutes later, there was a man behind me, looking at a stereo. It turns out he was a semi-driver taking a load of appliances back to Bellaire, which was five minutes from my hometown, Martins Ferry. We were also a distribution center. I went back to my desk, tore the front page out of the Bible, and wrote, “Mom, just thinking of you, have a wonderful day. Love, Bob”. She had, what turned out to be, terminal breast cancer. I went back to the warehouse, found the driver, and asked if he would mind taking this to my mother in Martins Ferry. He said sure and asked if the semi could maneuver in the backstreets. I looked at the truck, it was miles long. I proceeded to walk back to the sales floor, the driver following me. We were in a darker area of the warehouse when he stopped me, grabbed my hand and explained he was gay, and asked if he could give me oral sex. I have no issues with gay men. However, in my mind, at that moment, I had just given him a “Holy Mission”. Taking my note to Mom with cancer. At that time, I had a 350 lbs. bench press, if I had torn into him, he would probably have died. I looked at him, turned around, and went completely insane.

I went to the sales floor and started switching all the price tags. I had an Amana ice and water refrigerator, priced at $79.00, that sold for $1500. A basic washer I priced at $2000. There were several customers on the sales floor. I then picked up a can of Coca-Cola, went upstairs, and poured it into an industrial laser printer. I squirted some mustard on my suit and went down and sat at my desk. The V.P. came down a few minutes later and asked, “Bob, What's going on?” Quiet. “Are you drinking anything?” “No.” “Are you smoking anything?” “No,” I said, “Fred, I’m scared.” “Why are you scared?” I told him the truth, that I was overdosing on PCP.

About five minutes later, the police arrived and took me to an emergency room. They observed me for over an hour. I have no idea exactly how long because I was lost in the madness of my mind. I was perfectly quiet, the doctor gave me a card to a mental institution, explaining that because I was not violent, I could leave. Somebody drove me back over to work, where I was asked to take the weekend off. I was fired on Monday.

I had a 1969 Chevelle SS. and started driving, I swear I remember hitting one hundred mph. and I was not on the interstate. I had no idea where I was. Became lost several times. I'm on the interstate, then side roads. Back on the interstate. I'm dripping wet from sweat. I ran many red lights and stop signs, all at a very high speed. Somehow, I made it home. Arriving safely without even a ticket qualifies as a miracle. I was blown out of my mind.

At this moment, I thought I should call my mother and explain that a gay man might be pulling up in a semi truck with the front page of the Bible she had given me. Today this seems hilarious. She asked what on earth was wrong with me. I told her the truth, that I was overdosing on PCP and that I thought I had just lost my job. "You son of a b_itch" and slammed the phone. I had just lost my best friend. I went to Hell.

I'm sitting on the front porch drinking a little King beer. At this moment, my next-door neighbor, who I had never spoken with for the year I had lived there, came over, sat down, and introduced himself. I looked at him and he transformed. His eyes became black, he became over ten feet tall, and he grew wings and hooves. I said I was sick and had to go inside. I locked the door, took off all my clothes, and went to bed. All this occurred on a Friday, I came to sanity on Sunday morning. All I can explain about those lost twenty-four hours is this. There was no concept of time. I'm visualizing spiders, snakes, bats with human heads, smelling sulfur, seeing humans on fire in agony, lakes of fire, hearing intense screaming, at times in utter blackness. For every good thought, there was an immediate bad thought. My mind was in a continuous loop. Good, bad, good, bad, good, bad. Extremely, terrifyingly fast. I remember looking at the clock, it was 9:01. I thought hours and hours had gone by, so I looked again and saw 9:02. One minute.

I explained this to a doctor several years later. He told me he was writing a book about the effects of natural hallucinogens on the human psyche. There are many plants that are known to have hallucinogenic properties. These plants contain chemical compounds that can react with the human body in specific ways, affecting the brain and mental state of those who ingest them. He asked if it was pure PCP. I said yes. For some reason, he asked if I was spiritual, and I told him I was Christian. He explained that I had gone catatonic. He had patients who were in mental institutions. Put their hand up, it stays up until you put it down. Their mind is in a good/bad loop. Most came out of it, a few hadn't. PCP "short circuits" the synapse in the brain.

I remember during those lost twenty-four hours, focusing on a small constant light and breathing, while all this Hell was going on around me. I truly believed, if I stopped breathing, I would be in Hell. Forever. I woke up on Sunday morning, and the first sound I heard were birds singing. I took the PCP and flushed it. I didn't even smoke weed over the next year or so. The doctor said I had experienced a miracle. Yes, I had.

Before continuing, I should explain what I know is true. Eternal Source did not put me through this experience. I did. Source was the light I concentrated on with my right mind and spirit. What I experienced was an extreme attack by my insane wrong ego mind. God does not send us trials, each mind has the Holy Spirit within. All works out for the good of all parties concerned, always. You may not think so at the time. Looking back at my own life, for me, this is very true. I had been attending church regularly, believing strongly in the existence of Heaven and Hell. Until I became a student of A Course in Miracles, I still believed in Hell because I had seen it. My mind made the whole experience up. Our ego can be extremely viscous.

Before explaining the next miracle I'll describe what occurred with my wife of 20 years, Mary Jo. She is responsible for a Divine experience. Twenty one years ago, Mary Jo and I were becoming more excited about our upcoming vacation. We'd say, "One week closer." She proved to be an excellent employee of Time Warner Cable. After her first year, she was the top sales rep. in the Pittsburgh district. She had earned, not won, an all-expense paid, five-day cruise on Carnival Cruise. The time arrived. On Saturday, we went to the mall to get some last-minute items. We were walking, and Mary Jo suddenly stopped and saw a beautiful painting by Thomas Kincaid titled A New Day Dawning. She said, "I'll bet that's what Heaven looks like." I'm looking at the same painting now. During that time, she would randomly bring up the subject of death. "I don't know what I would do without you." "Honey, same here." I found out.

Sunday we flew out of Pittsburgh, Mary Jo was holding my arm with her head on my shoulder. She had never flown and was scared. We arrived in Florida and boarded the ship. We were very excited and called this our second honeymoon. The ship set sail for Nassau and stopped at a small island. We looked at the local vendors' merchandise. The last item Mary Jo ever purchased was a cross. That evening we attended Captain's Dinner. Mary Jo had on a black, sequin gown and was absolutely beautiful. After dinner, we watched a Broadway Show. We next had our pictures taken. These are the most precious items I own. In the last picture taken, she has her hand on my heart. We went to a club which had a dance floor. We loved to dance. We were both drinking champagne. Mary Jo would only drink on New Year's Eve. This was a very special occasion. We danced, sat down. She died.

I watched her stomach swell enormously, fluid expelled across the floor out of her mouth. She had been complaining about a pain in her leg. The compression and decompression of the aircraft caused a blood clot to let loose, and it hit her heart. She died instantly and entered Heaven, I went into a hell of grief.

The next morning, I mustered the strength to enter our room and pack everything up. When I opened our door, I felt a feeling somewhat like terror. I felt like I might faint, so I sat down. I started to tremble and sweat, my hand was shaking. I lay down on my back because I became slightly nauseous. I then felt something akin to fear and thought I have to get out of here. Now! I very quickly packed up, and every item I touched brought back recent memories, it felt like a dagger was in my chest. My God, I could still smell her perfume. My blood pressure had to have been through the roof. If I wasn't still feeling the sedatives the doctor gave me, I probably would have fainted. I should have had the staff do this, but I was certainly not reasoning properly. This was a nightmare and it was very real.

They set up a transoceanic call. I couldn't tell our children over the phone. Tracy was a freshman in optometry college, Tara was a senior in high school and Travis was in eighth grade. The only person I could think of was Mary Jo's mother, Jewel. She was one of the strongest individuals, male or female, I had ever met. A truly remarkable woman. She gasped and was quiet for a time that became worrisome. She told me later she almost fainted.

The captain came and said international law would have her body left off at the next port of call, Nassau. He suggested she remain on the ship and would be back in the States on Friday, eliminating red tape. I agreed. The ship made special arrangements and I flew out of Nassau.

I remember sitting in the airport watching all the happy couples holding hands. Surreal. Nobody knew what I had just experienced. I was in first class flying to Pittsburgh, and the seat next to me was empty. It really hit me and I gasped. Immediately, I felt like a warm egg had been broken over my head, and a feeling of peace came through me. It didn't last but an instant, looking back I know it was Mary Jo with her head on my shoulder, just like when we had taken off only two days before.

The next miracle occurred seven years later and Mary Jo caused it. An old friend called who lived in South Carolina, I was in Ohio. Ahnora asked if I would be willing to attend a three-day seminar at a church. I hadn't been in a church in years. She said it would be on a weekend. I'd go in on Friday night and leave on Sunday. She gave me the dates. She explained the retreat is called The Emmaus Walk and I could only be sponsored by one who had been on the walk, which she had. I asked what does the walk mean and what is the purpose.

She said two men had been walking toward a town called Emmaus after Jesus had been crucified. A third man joined them and proceeded to explain what their Scripture truly means. The Old Testament. His wisdom astounded the men. They arrived at their destination and made lunch. The moment they broke bread, the men's eyes were opened, and they saw they had been speaking with Jesus. He vanished. A miracle.

She had no idea if I would benefit from the retreat, she knew several who had. I agreed to attend. The weekend came, and an elderly gentleman picked me up at home. The church was forty-five minutes west. There was a beautiful sunset. I asked him what people had derived. He explained I would learn something, he had no idea what.

We arrived, and they collected our cell phones and watches. We would have no idea of time and would be awakened by hand bells. People on social media have suggested the reason they took our phones was so they could be hacked. Thus explaining the following miracle. No way! I'm a good judge of character from years in big-ticket sales. These kind people were far too professional. There were seventeen of us, all men. The minister informed us that volunteers would be continually praying for us in the chapel. Around the clock. All the food was home cooked. Let's say you wanted a Mountain Dew, and they didn't have it, you would have a Mountain Dew shortly. Incredible service.

Saturday morning came, and we all met in a conference room, we were broken into groups. There were five in my group and we were asked to assign a spokesman. The minister explained we would be listening to speakers who had experienced traumatic events and how they survived. We were to take notes. Late Sunday afternoon our speaker would explain to all, what our group had learned.

Two speakers I remember, one man had been sodomized by a priest for several years when young. The other was an elderly, big man with a deep voice. He had been head minister of a large local church. When his trauma started, he was in his sixties. One morning he was holding a toothbrush and had no idea what it was for. His wife found him sitting on the kitchen floor, crying. He went through months of therapy for deep clinical depression

Sunday afternoon came and the five of us explained individual lessons learned. I had told my group about Mary Jo. A mutual decision was made about what our spokesman should explain. After a moment or so I said, "Gentlemen, I have never explained to a group what our family experienced and how we survived. I would be honored to do so now." All agreed, our turn came. I talked for about twenty minutes. The minister plus several others shook my hand. No problem guys, my pleasure. Two men explained what they had been going through. One was elderly and taking care of his wife who was dying of cancer. What I had said about death being an illusion, and we live forever had touched him deeply. The other was a married young man with three children. He said he had lost his job and his employment was about to expire. I had explained to the group that worry does nothing but rob us of peace. I had also briefly mentioned our ego and how it wants us to be either living in the past or worrying about the future. In doing so, we are not living in the moment and talking to God now. The young man shook my hand and said, "Thank you." "You're Welcome". I simply told the truth.

Saturday night we went to the empty sanctuary where services were held. The auditorium was huge. Communion was offered, certainly not mandatory, all of us accepted. Sunday evening when the miracle occurred, several men were astounded. So was I. We again went to the sanctuary naturally expecting it to be empty. When the doors opened, there were hundreds of people holding candles. All for the men who had just completed The Emmaus Walk.

I experienced a wave of extremely powerful Indescribable Love. We walked to our seats and this is when I first met Ahora. The church had paid for her flight from the Carolinas to meet me. Astounding. The congregation left, and we were advised to take communion. This time we were instructed to put something on the bread we no longer wanted and someone else would ingest. I put on the bread that I wanted complete healing from the pain of losing her. I was totally and forever healed.

We were packing and a young man I had met last night came over. He was married with three children, worked two jobs, and was a gifted guitarist. He said, "Mary Jo was blond, right?" "Yes." "And she enjoyed dressing in black?" "Yes." "Who is Travie?" "Our nickname for our son Travis." "And you have a favorite picture of Mary Jo's, you're lying on your back with a baby on your chest. Who's that?" "Tara." I was amazed and asked, "How do you know this?" Mary Jo had come to him in a dream. She also said she would visit me twice in time. She was pleased with how happy our children are, and I was doing a good job. Folks who ask for proof that God exists, now have it. How could he have possibly known that information? A miracle.

The first visitation happened 3 years later. I was living in a single bedroom apartment in an apartment complex. A friend and I were drinking a beer and had just started a movie on Netflix. It was Halloween. The buzzer went off, meaning someone wanted to enter the building. I answered the intercom, no-one. They were probably trick or treaters. Several minutes later the buzzer went off again, no-one. The third time, I quickly left the apartment so I could see the building entrance. They must have ran, fast. We started watching the movie and someone knocked on the door. Nobody there. This was the type of building where there were no doors in the hallway due to fire code. WTF? Several minutes later there was another knock and I ran to the door. The hallway was empty. Ron said, "What is going on?" "I have no idea." There was another knock and the door opened. The second time this happened I saw the doorknob turn. I closed the door. I had an oak china cupboard from our old home. Mary Jo loved this piece of furniture. The door on the cupboard opened. I closed it. The door opened again and slowly moved back and forth. I started smelling roses, which was M.J.'s favorite flower. My friend couldn't. The para-normal had stopped. A miracle.

The second visit occurred on a Sunday afternoon after 5 years had passed. This is absolutely the most magnificent experience I will ever have in time. Seven friends were sitting on the floor in my living room. Jordan said, “Bob, you need to take ten.” She was referring to the original Grateful Dead acid. I took the strip, held it in my mouth, and swallowed. She said, “OMG you took twenty.” Doubled over. This was the last time I would ever take LSD. An hour later, everyone was talking and I could see their auras change color depending on what they were discussing. I was holding a crystal rock up in my right hand. A bright red liquid light came out of its structure down my arm and entered the base of my brain in the back of my neck. All Chakras opened and released incredible energy through my entire being. My third eye opened and the brilliant light exploded. I’m looking at Mary Jo.

She’s wearing a white luminous flowing shimmering gown with a billowing cape. Her long hair is glowing and somehow moving. Her eyes are a beautiful vibrant piercing blue. She’s surrounded by a translucent golden light and looks like she is inside a prism. A soft magnificent array of different instruments were playing sounds and chords I had never heard before. Such beautiful music was awe- inspiring. I was gazing at colors I had never seen. Roses appeared, danced, and vanished. I saw bonfires next to the Celestial Sea. Myriads were laughing, dancing, swimming, and playing games with whales and dolphins. Angels appeared and surrounded all. I saw visions of oceans, rivers, lakes, forests, mansions, streets of gold, children laughing and playing. I felt an enormous sense of Peace. I could fly. An incredible feeling of Love saturated every minuscule part of my Being. I very briefly saw the throne room of God.

Mary Jo is smiling and her form starts to vibrate and emit varying colors of brilliant light. She smiled wider and slowly vanished. I heard her singing voice whisper, "My Love you'll be Home and with me soon, very soon." This experience is embedded in the very core of my being. I understand skeptics will say Mary Jo's visitation was a complete fabrication due to the LSD and didn't happen. My answer is, "The Absolute Beauty of what I not only saw, heard and felt came from outside myself."

The next three occurrences were definitely messages from Heaven, there are no other explanations.

While working at Verizon, I helped a lady with a phone issue. She was probably in her late twenties. For whatever reason, I briefly explained Mary Jo's passing. I wondered after the fact why I had even brought up the subject with a complete stranger. She said, "And the ship made arrangements and flew you out of Nassau?" "Yes." She had been on the cruise when she was 15 years old. What are the odds of that?

Several years later I was drinking beer and watching others smoking weed, most I didn't know. The subject of death came up and I explained the tragedy our family had experienced. One married couple said, "That was you?” They had been on the same cruise ship a year prior and the crew were still talking about the beautiful wife enjoying a second honeymoon who had suddenly died on the dance floor.

This is really amazing, I was finishing a manuscript on my birthday in November 2023. The reason I place so many prints throughout is I want the script to “flow” with these magnificent truths. I came upon this quite by accident and was stunned, to say the least. This is exactly how Mary Jo looked when we were first married, even in the way she’s holding her hands. She gave me a birthday present from Heaven. Our ego's end is our true beginning. Love is Eternal.

Dream Visitations

Over 15 years ago I had a dream I knew had been about Mary Jo. Upon awakening, I immediately thought “What If I told you?” I heard these words but not with my ears. My very first writing was written in 25 minutes, the words flowed without thinking about them. I know they are from M.J., this was before I was familiar with The Course. These statements are in perfect alignment with the teachings in A.C.I.M.

What if I told you? What if I told you love is not an emotion but a force? What if I told you, God Is? What if I told you nothing can affect reality and nothing unreal exists, therein lies the peace of God? What if I told you there is no hell, only Heaven? What if I told you, you make your own hell? What if I told you all you see is an illusion, compared to the reality of Heaven? What if I told you death is an illusion, you live forever? What if I told you God does not forgive because He/She sees nothing to forgive? What If I told you if God made anything imperfect, He/She would no longer be perfect; therefore you are perfect, you have simply forgotten?

What if I told you, you are dreaming in Heaven and are about to wake up? What if I told you as you help you are helped, as you give you are given too, as you love you are loved? What if I told you that you go through pain to teach you what you do not want? What if I told you, as you forgive others, you are forgiving yourself? What if I told you forgiveness is the final lesson you need to learn? What if I told you nothing you can do offends God because you are merely dreaming? What if I told you there is no such thing as sin? What if I told you Spirit heals your mind, the mind heals your body? What if I told you, you need no one to make you whole, you are whole? What if I told you, you have a twin flame, you may not have met yet? What if I told you we are all brothers and sisters, we are one? What if I told you, you are love because you were made by love? What if I told you, you are forever the divine effect from the divine Source? What if I told you, you are Infinitely powerful, you have simply forgotten? What if I told you, you are part of the Mind of God, He/She has not forgotten you? What if I told you, Heaven would not be complete without you? Would you forgive and believe? Read that again.

Several months after that writing this just flowed also. I was now familiar with The Course doctrines. I informed you of these valuable truths before but they need repeating because of their great importance.

Truth! God Is. Now comes the thought that can be difficult for the human mind to grasp. Nothing else is! The logic is such. God has one Son. Christ. The Son is given All the power and Love of the Creator. The Son asked a question "What else is there?" The Prime Creator did not answer because there is nothing else. For a mad, tiny instant the Son "freaked", He thought the perfect communication with Source was gone. Instantly, the gift of the Holy Spirit was given to Christ, and He was healed. But not wholly. In that mad, tiny instant this false universe was created, out of fear of the Creator. Remember the Son has All the power of Source. In that mad, tiny instant the Son went into hiding, thinking He was "banned" from the Perfect state of Heaven. Not so. Be thankful God did not create this universe. Need proof? Everything here in the matrix goes to decay.

What God made is Eternal.

Look at the "fruits" of fear. We look at the insanity of this grand illusion and see death, wars, poverty, lies, secrets, corruption, hate, homelessness, and greed. When we understand this insanity, it means we are becoming sane. If God made this universe, He/She would be insane. Source is certainly not insane. Source made Heaven. Our True Home. Death is an illusion, we live forever. The gift of the Holy Spirit was given to all, to help us remember. If God made anyone or anything imperfect, He/She would no longer be perfect; therefore, we are perfect and are remembering. We are dreaming in Heaven and about to wake up. How do we wake up? Forgive everything that happened in a past which does not exist. Forgive all you perceive as being wrong. All is an illusion compared to the Reality of Heaven. Love casts out all fear. Fear nothing. Love Is The Most Powerful Force In All Of Existence.

Chapter 5

Mutant Message Down Under

Consider reading “Mutant Message Down Under.” The author is Marlo Morgan, non-fiction. Indigenous peoples all around the globe are offering the valuable insights they’ve known for centuries to the world. I read it years ago and still utilize a prayer it taught me.

She was a healthcare professional and did a lot of charitable work for the Aborigines in Australia. After several years, she was given an honor never offered before. The Aborigines asked her to come to an awards ceremony. She flew to Australia and drove hours out into the desert to meet them. The first thing they did was have her dress as they do and burn her clothes, wallet, and credit cards. They then offered her great honor. To live with them for 3 moons, 3 months, in the desert. She accepted.

After the first day of walking, she had second thoughts, her feet were blistered as she was barefoot. They put some natural salves on, which healed better than any pharmaceutical would have. She kept going, her feet became very calloused.

What she witnessed was astounding. They communicate via telepathy. She had been a moon in and the chief stopped the tribe from walking. He had received a message in his mind from a hunter. The hunter became ill and had killed a kangaroo. He asked permission to cut off the tail so it would be lighter to carry. Several days later he came into camp with the tailless kangaroo, sick.

Later, a man accidentally fell off a cliff and broke the femur in his leg. This is the largest bone in the body and had broken through his skin, this happened to me. She saw what the tribe healer did. She placed a natural medicine on the man's leg. She didn't touch the bone but placed her hands around the bone. She saw an energy of light come from her hands to his bone. The bone mended together and went back into his leg. He walked normally as if nothing had happened.

She witnessed many astounding occurrences in the 3 moons. The Aborigines have no homes. They are very healthy, seldom become sick, and live very long lives. No wars, no crime, no prisons, no hospitals. They refer to us as mutants. What I learned was how they pray. Every morning they pray, "Great Spirit, for my highest good and the highest good of All, please help us find substance to survive." They live in the middle of a vast and desolate desert.

Twenty-some years ago, my unemployment had ended, and I had to leave the home I rented as it had been sold. My credit was blown, and I had been turned down at other rental properties. I was desperate. I had just finished reading Mutants. I thought, ok, let's try this. I prayed, "Holy Spirit, for my highest good and the highest good of all, please find me a job and a place to live." That very day, I found a job and a place to live. Please understand and pray from the heart. The Holy Spirit knows what you truly need. If you pray for a new car, I doubt anything will happen. I recently started a nightly prayer, especially when my mind is churning. I pray, "Holy Spirit, for my highest good and the highest good of all, please grant perfection in listening to the Sacred Silence between my thoughts." Try this. You'll experience a growing awareness of God's Infinite Love and Peace.

I'm also receiving answers to questions I didn't know I had.

Chapter 6

Ayahuasca And The Shawman

Years ago I was in North Carolina with Jamie, a lady I was dating and we met James. The three of us talked all night. He told us one of the most amazing stories I had ever heard.

He and a close friend paid five thousand dollars each to fly to Peru and live one week with a Shaman in the jungle. The purpose was to take Ayahuasca, the most powerful hallucinogen on the planet. They were instructed to fast for three days and then were given the drug. Exactly what the Shaman said would happen, happened.

After a half hour, they vomited. Then he was shown his ego and all its insane intelligence. James said the vision of his ego was so horrible, he gave up trying to reason with it and just observed. The Course teaches us not to converse with it, which makes it real, but it's not.

Next came the Glory. He saw how everything is interconnected. Humans, the animal kingdom, and nature. But his vision went much deeper. All the multi-universes, all the galaxies, all the stars, millions of worlds, all the molecules, all atoms, all life everywhere was created and re-created and maintained by an all-encompassing powerful intelligent Eternal Loving Force. And there is nowhere this Force is not.

James was quiet for a minute and said that death is an illusion, we live forever. All he explained could have come right out of The Course, and he had never heard of the book. The experience had such a profound effect on his friend that he stayed in Peru for several months. He's a professional painter and his paintings were later shown at the United Nations.

James said the Shamen have been told to share their wisdom with the world, he didn't say by Whom. Ayahuasca must be like taking pure PCP and powerful LSD at once. I'm sure one could try this, but believe me from experience, this would not work.

Chapter 7

My Dream Of Heaven

I'd like to explain the highlights of "My Dream of Heaven" by Rebecca Springer. All who have read it come to the same conclusion. The book is much too beautiful to have been made up. It was written in the 1890s.

Rebecca "died" and was carried to Heaven by her uncle who was killed in the Civil War. He set her down in a beautiful meadow. She said one could get lost in the perfection of a single rose. She had on a beautiful white gown which "shimmered". They waded into a river and the water came up to their throats. She said, "Stop! We'll drown". The "earth thoughts" persisted. He looked at her with a twinkle in his eye and said, "We don't drown here." They went down about 40 feet and talked at length. They were surrounded by beautiful light rays and refractions, like being inside a prism. When they came out, her hair and gown were instantly dry, and she felt as if she could fly. She did, later.

All the water in Heaven flows from the Throne Room of God and prepares the soul for the Celestial Life. She picked fruit and said the taste was extraordinary, beyond anything she had ever tasted. The juice squirted on her gown and instantly vanished. Nothing impure can exist in Heaven.

All the streets of gold are real. Magnificent mansions of oak, pine, stone and ivory. Jesus said, "In my Father's Kingdom there are many mansions." Children came into her home who were artisans. They had delicate tools and planted live roses in (not on) her marble floors.

She was there quite a while, time was meaningless, when she came upon a golden lake. She said it was so beautiful she was hardly spiritually strong enough, even in Heaven, to look at it. There were boats driven by a technology that she wasn't aware of.

There is no night, just a softening of glory. She went to a massive outdoor theater. The dome roof was held up by columns of Jasper and Pearl. There were singing angelic beings up in the dome. Martin Luther of the Reformation strode out on stage. He talked of the effects the Lutheran Church had on Europe. All heads were bowed after he spoke contemplating the wisdom shared. She looked up and out came Jesus. He was dressed in a golden suit and the Glory of God surrounded him. He spoke of the link between the earthly life and the Heavenly life. She said if she had known how the Saints and Angels watched over her in time, she wouldn't have worried so much. Jesus then spoke of how their life in Heaven would be.

When writing the book she didn't know of any earth words which could properly explain his teachings concerning the Celestial Life. We wouldn't be able to understand anyway. She Saw The Throne room Of God.

One would not be able to behold this in human form. The Power, Glory, and Love were beautiful and immense beyond thought. The last thing she saw before waking from her coma was the Celestial Sea. There were huge, wooden, sailing schooner ships adorned with all the flags of the world bringing new arrivals from Earth. Their loved ones were excitedly awaiting on shore. She said, "Oh death where is thy victory? Where is thy sting?"

Chapter 8

Jonathan Livingston Seagull

Jonathan Livingston Seagull was written in 1970. The little book became a New York Times bestseller. As a young gull, Johnathan did what every other gull did. All day, every day, he would fight other gulls to get the fish scraps thrown off the boats. As he grew older, he'd had enough, there must be a better way to live than this. He started practicing flying. Every day, as he practiced more and more, he became quite fast. The other gulls thought he was very strange, and he became an outcast. This didn't matter to Johnathan, at all. He practiced wing trim, spin dives, tail dives and advanced aerodynamics for a bird. He broke the sound barrier and because of his great speed he could dive very deep and capture the best fish. He could also fly very high for tasty insects. He lived to a ripe old age and one day a baby gull flew into his path. He swerved and flew into a cliff at a very high speed. He died. Next, the Great Gull was standing next to him and said, "Well Johnathan, your method of leaving time was a little abrupt, let's continue your training." He reached the point of thinking of being somewhere and instantly he was there.

This is my take on this beautiful story. All of his life, Johnathan strove to achieve perfection in flight. Because of his dedication, he ate better and lived better than all the other gulls. I feel this is analogous to a Christian's life. I have and continue to live my life by the standards Jesus set. He lived a perfect life. His only enemies were the religious hierarchy. He was caring, kind, generous, truthful, helpful, forgiving, honest and loving. As we strive to achieve perfection in these traits, we, like Johnathan, live better.

If everyone alive today, all 8 billion of us, would simply live by, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."; here's what would happen. We would have no more wars, prisons, poverty, crime, or homelessness. We would have no need for locks or passwords. Doing just that. Think about it, it's true.

Chapter 9 Time Is Collapsing

This is a brief compilation of beautiful thoughts to offer hope. Also, these writings and stories will bring you a growing remembrance of your true nature which is one of total peace. I don't know when it became unimportant to me if it's raining or sunny or what time it is. The day of the week means nothing and I couldn't care less what month it is. Politics, inflation, the state of the economy, relations between countries, the drug explosion, the healthcare system, etc. are simply of no consequence to me anymore. It no longer matters if I sleep a lot or very little. I do not worry about money as it's always there when I need it. I haven't owned a car in years. I rent and all I own is a T.V., cell-phone and clothes. I've lost over a half million dollars in real estate and wasn't upset at all.

I find I have a grateful attitude for good health and my cup is half-full. I no longer worry about anything and fear nothing. I have no guilt. I'm perfectly fine being totally alone and am never lonely. I love that one. These writings are what I dwell on and if you read with an open attitude the growing positive attributes I'm experiencing will happen to you as well. Guaranteed. I pray we begin to see the attributes of Christ in everyone we meet.

I mentioned some of these writings before, but they need repeating due to the "word flow."

This is amazing, I entered a writing contest on a site for authors. The contest had 5 themes to choose from. I chose "Write a story from the point of view of a non-human character." The writing had to be less than 3000 words. I had to make my little manuscript short, concise, and to the point. I wrote this in a few hours, I was a conduit. Time Is Collapsing.

Whoa, why is this? Who am I? Another answered, not by voice, but somehow He heard. You're My Son. What's a Son? You're my very first creation. What does creation mean? I'll show You around after a little more creating. You're also My only joy. Astonishingly, He knew what joy is and He felt absolutely wonderful. This Being started to share the very essence of Who He Is, and suddenly, He started to learn and comprehend very, truly, extremely fast. He mysteriously understood atomic forces, protons, electrons, neutrons, neutrinos, recurring and changing inorganic and organic molecules. He comprehended amino acids and the forces that regulate all. Vistas of astonishing beauty opened up for Him. He became ecstatic while gazing at forests, oceans, rivers, lakes, mountains, skies, worlds, suns, stars, galaxies, and universes. He was everywhere with this magnificent One. He asked, “Who are You?” “I Am” was the reply. He instantly comprehended His own name is Christ.

He became aware this is His Father, Whose very nature is to give and teach all He knows, and He knows everything. Christ knew He is not in any way separate or different from God. Christ understands He is not a part of God, He is an extension of the whole. He knew love must be shared, and the love that is shared in His Father’s universe is exquisite and beautiful. Oh, the joy and laughter as They completed One Another. Christ supremely became as powerful, compassionate, wise, knowing, limitless, and most importantly as loving as His Creator. They are inseparable and continue to co-create vast galaxies and universes. However, due to the infinite wisdom of I Am, they stopped short of creating life to populate all that is. In Their Beautiful Minds, They knew exactly what to do when God would say the moment was perfect. They envisioned all aquatic life, myriads of different flying species, all animal life, and the harmony of the varying interconnected environments all would live in. Their creations were also to be gifted with the ability to co-create. Each after their own kind. All of this would happen in a nanosecond. Just as Christ had been created.

There was no concept of time or space for They were everywhere, and They were One. God has created Christ to be exactly like Himself and to share His eternal love and joy in a state of unencumbered, boundless, and unimaginable ecstasy. Any question the Son asked was instantly answered as Their communication was perfect.

Then somewhere, somewhen Christ asked a question that was not answered. What? Why? The question was like, “What else is there?” or “What would it be like to go out and play by Myself?” I Am did not answer because there is nothing else, but God’s perfect creation. The Divine Son became horrified, certainly an awful new feeling previously unknown. He mistakenly thought His perfect communication was completely gone. Then He experienced a vastly more terrible knowing. Fear. Christ instantly created a universe of His own where He could hide. What we refer to as The Big Bang occurred, composed of billions of fragments. He needed somewhere deeper to escape, so He instantly made the first human bodies after His Own Image and placed His Magnificent Mind into all of them. The first ego was spawned. This Mind believes that it is completely on its own. Christ also actualized all the animal life, countless aquatic creatures, the avian companions, and the harmonious environments they would all co-create in. While we may still try to create, we cannot really compose without the power of God, so everything made eventually falls apart and dies. The reason is that this false dream universe was contrived due to fear.

God knows absolutely nothing about this since in nonduality there is only a constant, unchangeable Love. Before there was only Oneness, now there is Twoness. The idea of duality could not be carried out in God's reality, so Christ created a dream universe of illusion and entered it as if falling asleep and dreaming. The trouble was that He went into such a deep state of sleep that He had no awareness that He was dreaming, so He accepted the universe of illusion as real and forgot that He had a true home in the Celestial Realm.

The story of Adam symbolizes what happened to Him and us. The Bible says that a deep sleep fell upon Adam, and nowhere is there a reference to his waking up. This created a barrier in communication between the Father and the Son so deep that God decided a correction was necessary. God's extension outward, though not His completeness, is blocked when the Son does not communicate with Him as One. So He thought, My Child is asleep and must be awakened. So God wanted to awaken His Son. But there was a major problem.

Whatever God places His attention on becomes as if it is real. If God entered the dream to redeem His Son, then the dream would become real to Him as well, and He would also be trapped. There would be the risk of both the Father and the Son becoming eternally separated from their true Home, eternally losing Their Identity. In other words, if God Himself were to acknowledge anything except the idea of perfect oneness, then there would no longer be perfect oneness. There would no longer be a perfect state of Heaven for us to return to. As we will see, we never really left anyway. We're still there, but we have entered into a nightmare state of illusion. While we have traveled only in dreams, God and Christ, Who are always One, have continued as They always have and always will, completely unaffected by the "tiny, mad idea" of separation.

To solve the problem and allow God to keep His attention focused on Reality, He created a special agent, The Holy Spirit, that would be a bridge between the two states of existence and the answer to the separation. He has created the Holy Spirit as the Mediator between perception and knowledge. Without this link with God, perception would have replaced knowledge forever in our minds. With this link with God, the perception will become so changed and purified that it will lead to understanding.

The Holy Spirit knew the original Christ Mind had created a black hole and was attempting to return to nothingness, His pain and fear was that horrible. The Voice for God shattered the unending darkness with a huge blast of beautiful light. The original Christ was healed, began to love Himself again and woke up in Heaven. He and His Father then worked together to populate the Heavens with all life forms.

We are all split off as part of the One Christ Mind. There can only be one Son. Unity can only create unity. Multiplicity cannot originate from Oneness. If all His creations are His Son, everyone must be an integral part of the whole Sonship. The Sonship in its oneness transcends the sum of its parts. Therefore, the term Sons of God is used by God for our convenience in addressing His Children as they believe they are. On the other hand, the Son of God is the term used to denote who we truly are as Christ, the Identity of Oneness we shall awaken to after our dream of multiplicity is undone.

Each time a baby appears to be born into this world, it is merely reliving the time when it seemed to leave its perfect environment in God, where all was nirvana, and it was completely taken care of and provided for, and then suddenly found itself slapped in the face by a seeming reality that was a living hell by comparison. We may consider birth to be a miracle, but babies don't come into this world smiling, do they? They come in crying and screaming.

The mind that is reliving the seeming separation has actually fallen asleep and is dreaming an idle, insignificant dream, or nightmare because anything that seemed to be apart from Heaven would have to be symbolic of an opposite to Heaven. It would thus seem to include opposite characteristics. There's no doubt we believe we're experiencing reality here. We must be shown the way out of this experience. Our "asleep at the wheel mind” doesn’t know it, but it’s going to wake up in the equivalent of a cosmic instant. That is because the Voice for God and Heaven, which we will refer to as the Holy Spirit, is still with us to remind us of the truth and call us to return. This fail-safe memory of whom we really are can never be lost, making an awakening to the reality of Heaven completely inevitable.

We have the power to choose the memory and strength of God or something else instead. That is what the part of our mind that decides did immediately after the seeming separation. Out of shock, fear, and confusion, it made a series of unwise choices that resulted in us appearing to be here. We still don’t realize that, given the remarkable power of the mind, certain choices made by us could end the seeming separation, and could have at any time. This means that we are capable of accomplishing it, with beautiful help from The Holy Spirit.

God could not have created this world. It would not be in His nature. He is not cruel. If this were the real world, God would be cruel. For no Father could subject His children to this as the price of salvation and be loving.

So now the original healed Christ Who is continuing to learn from Our Father is thinking, I’ve learned much from my first question of “Whoa, why is this?” I must help the children I have made. Thus enters Jesus into the dream illusion. The Son thought I’ll have Jesus be born of a virgin, and he’ll be able to perform what my children will call miracles. Christ knew He had been healed by the Holy Spirit, so the same Spirit conceived Jesus in Mary’s womb. Furthermore, Christ thought to Himself, I’ll ask the Holy Spirit to descend on Jesus in the form of a dove after he’s baptized by John. Christ also thought I’ll have Jesus led into the desert immediately after his baptism and live for 40 days and nights without food or water. He knew His children would mistakenly think the reason was to be tempted by a Satan which doesn’t exist (neither does hell). Christ thought I’ll have Jesus trained in the wilderness to only listen to the Holy Spirit; thus his ego will be totally eliminated. Jesus will be the only one in time who will completely manipulate his dreaming. Christ knows he’ll walk on water, calm the seas, feed the multitudes, explain magnificent spiritual truths, heal the paralyzed, the blind will see and best of all, he’ll raise the dead.

This will prove to my children that death is an illusion, especially after he will live again after his crucifixion. He knew unfortunately His children would think he died for their sins. My Father knows nothing about my false universe and doesn't even know what sin is. He understands I'll have the same Holy Spirit Who healed Me, have Jesus thoroughly understand he is One with Me as I am One With Our Father. My creations will eventually understand the same Truth. When the last mind is healed and the false universe vanishes, My Father and I will receive great pleasure and joy in teaching our beautiful children the perfection of their being. Forever. They'll understand Love is not an emotion but the most powerful force in all creation.

We will all arrive at the same perfect and wonderful conclusion. Eventually, we will evolve into a Co-Creator God Consciousness Being. It is a natural process to unfold into this state of being, like anything else in nature. There is so much a soul can learn by observing nature and all her teaching lessons. In all of nature, there is never a hurry to quicken a process as everything is always perfect in every moment and when the time is right, the rose will bloom. The Universal Christ Mind is constantly communicating with all of creation in every moment. For the kingdoms without free will this connection is called innate intelligence when the guidance comes directly from the Universal Mind. The guidance for a beaver to build a dam, a bird to build a nest, a flock of birds to fly in a V Formation, the spider to spin her web, a rose to bloom or the hibernation of animals in the Winter. The timing always comes perfectly. All these life forms are always in Christ's presence in every moment. This guidance is perfect, and it represents harmony, balance, order, and unity for the good of all. Nature comes together to represent the synchronicity of the Oneness as life unfolds. These kingdoms, mineral, plant, insect, animal, and angelic, do not have free will and are directly connected to the Christ Mind and stay consciously aware at every moment.

Every soul that comes to Earth is also directly connected to this Mind, but has not yet learned to stay consciously aware in each moment. Before coming to Earth we were also connected to the Son's Mind through Innate Intelligence, but when we came to Earth, we were gifted with free will, the ability to manifest using a conscious mind and learning to discern using the five senses and reasoning. Once the Earth soul understands they are always connected to the Universal Mind and never separated from the Oneness of life, they will learn to trust their feelings and reconnect to understand their perfection. Supernova

This is why Gary Renard's books are awesome. He's the author of The Disappearance Of The Universe and Your Immortal Reality.

“Maybe you're watching TV and you forgive a news story that you see. Another layer of the onion is peeled away, but you think nothing's happening. Simultaneously, the Holy Spirit is shining your forgiveness everywhere throughout the mind that is projecting the universe, and thus through the projection as well. It cuts through unconscious guilt and its projections of karma like a laser beam. It goes through all of your past lives, all of your future lives, all through the different dimensions of time, everywhere in the universe of energy and form, and through every parallel universe that appears to exist. Incredible things are happening!

The Holy Spirit is actually collapsing time as you sit there.

Because of your practice of forgiveness, there are lessons that you no longer need to learn, and the Holy Spirit is actually erasing the tapes, taking dimensions of time that held lessons you would have needed to learn if you didn't practice forgiveness, and making those dimensions disappear. And because you can't see everything that the Holy Spirit can see, you're sitting there thinking, This is boring. Nothing's happening. But something amazing is happening. More layers of the onion have been peeled away, and your ego is vanishing.

If you persevere and continue to practice forgiveness, then at some point you get down to the final layer of the onion. When you peel away that layer of the onion, then there's nothing left. The onion is gone. And that's the way it is with the ego. After your final forgiveness lesson, the ego is gone; it's been undone, and there's nothing left to interfere with your experience of Who You Are. There's no reason for you to reincarnate.

Who Am I?

“I am God’s Son, complete and healed and whole, shining in the reflection of His Love. In me is His creation sanctified and guaranteed eternal life. In me is love perfected, fear impossible, and joy established without opposite. I am the holy home of God Himself. I am the Heaven where His Love resides. I am His holy Sinlessness Itself, for in my purity abides His Own. Our use for words is almost over now. Yet in the final days of this one year we gave to God together, you and I, we found a single purpose that we shared. And thus you're joined with me, so what I am are you as well. The truth of what we are is not for words to speak of nor describe. Yet, we can realize our function here, and words can speak of this and teach it, too, if we exemplify the words in us. We are the bringers of salvation. We accept our part as saviors of the world, which through our joint forgiveness is redeemed. And this, our gift, is therefore given to us. We look on everyone as brothers, and perceive all things as kindly and as good. We do not seek a function that is past the gate of Heaven. Knowledge will return when we have done our part. We are concerned only with giving welcome to the truth. Ours are the eyes through which Christ's vision sees a world redeemed from every thought of sin. Ours are the ears that hear the Voice for God proclaim the world as sinless. Ours the minds that join together as we bless the world. And from the oneness that we have attained we call to all our brothers, asking them to share our peace and consummate our joy. We are the holy messengers of God who speak for Him, and carrying His Word to everyone whom He has sent to us, we learn that it is written on our hearts. And thus our minds are changed about the aim for which we came, and which we seek to serve. We bring glad tidings to the Son of God, who thought he suffered. And as he sees the gate of Heaven stand open before him, he will enter in and disappear into the Heart of God." -Jesus from A Course In Miracles

Awakening is not accomplished through the death of the body. Our Soul is eternal and cannot die. Therefore, if our Soul is not awakened at the point in "time" when we drop the physical body it will simply create another body in which to continue its journey to awakening. Yet one thing is certain as promised by God. We will awaken to the Truth that we are exactly as God created us. What we are experiencing now is being awake within the dream. Soon, we will awaken from the dream.

Time Is Collapsing Now From A.C.I.M.

And the incoming light increases, as you align with the truth of Love, you become like a column of living light and anyone who comes into this column will return to who they are. So all infirmities will heal. Hearts will open like roses and the ego-mind will drop away as if it had never been there. This is what happened with Jesus.

Now you are here to learn this. How to reveal the truth through the acceptance of the glorious Now moment, and of course, your acceptance of who you really are. So dear ones, all of you, your walk now is to come to hold this. To hold the center so firmly that I Am in the world, as you. Yet since you do this for all humanity, there will be some, possible, shifting back and forth from the divine to the human. From the Real to life on Earth. So I ask you to decide to be determined to learn to hold the center by aligning with the vertical arm, the center. Being the Twin Flame opening for Love to come here, to be present here on Earth. If you find yourself caught again by the identities of ego, return to the joy of the Now moment. Make sure it is Real to you. Consciously shift and then center. Remember to do this from the Real. Then trust in the power of Love and feel who you are. At the center, in the River. Do this in meditation. Do this in the time before you go to sleep and in the time when you come awake in the morning. For these are times when the little mind has far less influence. Pray, “Holy Spirit for my highest good and the highest good of all, please grant perfection in listening to the Sacred Silence between my thoughts.” This is about the feeling of exalted holy life. You can use your mind like the arrows that point to a treasure. And you can use your will to get you to the center, but then you must surrender it. You can use your imagination but center it in feelings and this will be the most effective as you reclaim your truth again.

Identify with the experience If you open the whole vertical arm and come into your place as that which it flows through, then beloved one, the whole of life is available to you, right then. So rather than experience a rejection of life, of the body, and life in this world by returning to only consciousness, you will include all life, and you will open the way to the reclaiming of humankind.

For the River of Life, the vertical arm brings the whole right here. And thus Now and My presence brings the message to everyone. Accept the One, the vertical, the identity as God, and everything is then magnetized by your open and giving heart. Hearts are cleared of the “programs” of consensual reality in the presence of one who has shifted because the magnetic Twin Flame presence brings it about. How? Just as a magnet held up to a computer disc will instantly erase all that was recorded there! It is just the same with you! If any Twin Flame pair are living Now the truth, then this column of light that you stand in will erase the program of consensual reality and of a limited identity of human. Gone, just like that. And if the ego-mind re-installs it, the magnet returns it again and again, effortlessly, by your presence. I Am Perfect Love and I Am Perfect Life. Use these words as a launching pad to launch you into the living Now.

Note: I was confused by the above paragraph, so I asked Microsoft Bing for clarification, here’s the answer. -Bob

“The concept of twin flames is deeply rooted in spiritual and metaphysical beliefs. Let me break it down for you:

Twin Flame Definition:

A twin flame is an intense soul connection with someone thought to be a person's other half, often referred to as a "mirror soul." The idea is that sometimes one soul gets split into two bodies, and these two halves are destined to reunite. Twin flames are believed to share a profound bond that goes beyond ordinary relationships. Importantly, each person remains "whole" on their own, and the twin flame relationship encourages personal growth and completeness. Signs You've Found Your Twin Flame: Instant Recognition: When you meet your twin flame, there's an intense sense of attraction, recognition, and longing. It feels like coming home. Similarities: You and your twin flame may have a lot in common—values, experiences, and interests. Complementing Each Other: Where you aren't similar, your differences complement each other. It's like yin and yang. Amplified Insecurities: Twin flames mirror each other's deepest insecurities, fears, and shadows. The purpose is to support each other's divine mission and growth. Challenging and Healing: The relationship will be both challenging and healing, pushing you to overcome your limitations. Twin Flame Cycle and Stages: The twin flame journey involves various stages, including separation and reunion. The chase (also known as twin flame separation) occurs when one partner pulls away, causing temporary separation. Ultimately, twin flames aim for vibrational alignment and illumination, where they hold a mirror to each other's love and imperfections.

In summary, the quote you mentioned suggests that in the presence of a twin flame, hearts are freed from societal norms ("programs" of consensual reality) because the magnetic connection between twin flames brings about transformation and healing. It's a powerful and transformative experience that goes beyond ordinary relationships."

Bring it back to the center, beloved ones, and experience who you are as I made you. So for you, it is our closeness that will do this always for you, bringing to you the experience of who you really are. The biggest thing I ask of you is to bring back your projections of things into the future and bring back your remembrance of things in the past. Bring back all that has been taken out of the Now. Return it and experience it, this truth of who you are. Step into the Now moment and accept the mantle of Christ.

Chapter 12
Live In The Eternal Now

“At this moment you are present in the living Now. Only in the eternal Now moment can you ever experience the truth of this Love. And only here, Now, can all you are be manifested on every “level” everywhere. Only in the living Now moment, when the fiery Lovemaking brings forth your life, can you truly feel your identity as perfect Love. Forever. You are the heart of God. You are the very energies of Creation. For you and your Twin Flame self are a part of these streams of life, Divine Masculine and Divine Feminine. And only here, when you are One, right Now, can you ever have the experience of Being, that you are perfect Love as an inclusive whole in which you are forever aware of yourself in relationship with life. Beloved one, though I speak to you, these words are for everyone. Yet, you embarked upon a new request for awareness, and so I answer you. Of course, this request, this threshold is perfectly timed and unfolded to reveal the next step. This step is that which I said to you recently, words that contain the keys to it all, words that cause your heart to soar and remembrance to come alive within.

You are as I created you, and this cannot be changed. Beloved heart of this All of Love, I ask you now to surrender to this. Release from yourself all those seeming contradictions at last to embrace the one Real truth. If life on Earth is an illusion, a dream, then the being you are has not been affected by this, which we are calling living life on Earth. Right now at this moment you are whole and vast, magnificent, the expression of My own Twin Flame life. You are that which is alive in My heart. Within your heart, as well as Mine, is this great creation of Love that now is reflected forth full and perfect everywhere at once.

You, each one of you, precious living Twin Flame cells, or “atoms”, within My own great heart, can release the dream of this limited human life only at the Moment of Creation, only by returning to the ever living Now, the source of life and Love, the source of created life, which really is a misnomer because nothing is created that wasn’t already there, present in the Ocean of Potential.

Once again I was confused about the meaning of the above paragraph, following is Bing’s answer. -Bob “Certainly! Let’s explore the profound message you’ve shared: Twin Flame Cells: The reference to “Twin Flame cells” suggests that each individual is like a cell or atom within a greater whole. These cells are considered precious and interconnected, possibly reflecting the idea that we are all part of a larger cosmic unity. Release of the Dream of Limited Human Life: The phrase “release the dream of this limited human life” implies transcending the limitations of our earthly existence. It suggests moving beyond the constraints of our physical bodies and societal norms. Moment of Creation and the Ever Living Now: The “Moment of Creation” refers to a pivotal point where transformation occurs. Returning to the “ever living Now” emphasizes the importance of being fully present in the present moment. It implies that true liberation lies in embracing the eternal now, rather than dwelling on past regrets or future anxieties. Source of Life and Love: The “source of life and Love” likely alludes to a higher, universal energy or consciousness. Love is often considered a fundamental force that connects all beings. By tapping into this source, one can experience profound transformation and healing. Ocean of Potential: The concept of an “Ocean of Potential” suggests boundless possibilities. Everything that exists was already present in this vast potential before manifesting in our reality. It challenges the notion of linear time and highlights the interconnectedness of all existence.

In summary, the message encourages us to recognize our interconnectedness, release limitations, and embrace the eternal present. It invites us to tap into the source of life, love, and potential that transcends our human experience.”

All that has happened is that all of it has simply been “enlightened” or illuminated, that I can know Myself. Now it is time for all of you to know yourselves as well. Not the little human self, of course. There’s nothing to know that’s real in her or in him, but the truth of why you are. In this, My beloved one, I tenderly reveal to you the answer to your questions: (a) about the Reconnecting Process as it relates to the releasing of your identity as limited human beings and (b) My answer to your quest to manifest this yourself, including My revelation to you that there are energies yet within you that have not accepted the shift.

Of course this is obvious because if all of your energies are truly aligned, then that which is seen in the symbols of this world would be showing up as perfect. These energies within you are often referred to as subconscious because they are ways the ego-mind has hidden its machinations and the resulting heart's beliefs. Oh, but whenever you ask, you turn on the light and if you are serious and are paying attention, the messages will come through. For I Am ever alive with you and you are My beating heart. So such life, such light, such pulsing energy that is the truth of your being, your heart, will always illuminate anything and everything that you bring into the River of Life and Light.

And you have asked repeatedly to know the truth and to come to live it. You have agreed to bring forth the path for which I give My gratitude. Thus, I bring you the dream because this is a language that you understand to be speaking about the subconscious, or your hidden heart's beliefs. So now you have awareness. You have that moment of cognition that is needed because all of you must be fully conscious, which means all that's hidden must be revealed so you can make your choice.

This choice is your identity and your orientation to life. Are you going to choose to be on the slide of duality or are you truly dedicated to choosing only light and life, choosing only Love? The only way that you can then return to your identity as My Living Heart is to bring yourself present into the center.

Return To The Living Now Moment

Once you do, beloved one, all of you, of course, then and only then you can experience and accept the truth of who you are. Once you have experienced this, once you have felt the truth of Twin Flame Love and lived the glorious explosion of life and felt and known in the Holy Now of our magnificent and holy relationship, only then can you claim it for your life here as well. So the Reconnection Process is the cognition of the false identity as a limited human being, and it is transformed only from the Real. It is transformed in your heart by experiencing the truth at the center point in the Now. And when you do this, then your true identity has to replace all your illusions of a separated life.

Then you can live it on Earth as well, because in the living River of the Now moment of Creation, the whole "vertical arm" of the cross is illuminated, and the felt experience of the fact that you are still and always exactly as I created you replace your belief in humanness through your whole being. This means absolutely all of you, including all the hidden parts, including the subconscious. Once it is felt, you've made the shift. You've "gone vertical," as you say. You've made the background-foreground shift because you've used the language of the Real, which is feelings. Most especially the feeling of ecstatic joy and of the deep assurance that I Am ever and always with you and that, in our Love, the whole of life is loved. This establishes your connection with the living flow of giving Love that is the essential energy of your Real Twin Flame life, as it is forever in the ongoing Now.

So the key here is the Now experience. Only by making yourself present Now can you ever make this shift. And this shift includes being the living Christ on Earth Now. Not sometime in the future, after you transform the things of the past. But Now, in total surrender to Me all of your human life. What you have done and so many do, and you have done it deliberately, of course, is to place everything somewhere away from you, somewhere in the future.

You've got your healing there. And your shift into Christedness. So even though you've realized many things, you had not until now got this. Now you're ready. You are ready as your life goes on a rocket ship. You're already up beyond the atmosphere. I ask all of you to trust this, that we are stacking it and everything will happen all at once, your realizations and your readiness, and the needed personnel, and resources. Surrender it all to Me.

Go forth in every way right now. Do not place it, any of it, off in the future based on reasons from your little mind. Everything is now, including your full shift into the fully awakened Twin Flame hearts you truly are. But for all of you, I ask you to live the truth of the River of Life. There is only one and from it comes your nourishment, your consciousness, your identity as only Love, all the keys to going forth as the living heart of God that I may love as you and speak as you and bring forth transformations, which will look on Earth like "healings" but of course are all-inclusive and not about one part of someone such as "an illness" or an injury, So your shift in your identity is underway and yet as always, you have to choose, and you must be conscious, and you must be Love. The "past" and the "future" are transformed by the Now.

Anything you experience and accept at the center point goes forth into the hologram of your entire life. It has to, for you are also one creative Twin Flame life, which is why, of course, what each of you transforms in a Twin Flame relationship instantly affects a shift within the other. There's really only one of you and only one of us. So to transform your old heart's beliefs, simply consciously come into the Now. For only in the Now can anything happen that is of the return to who and what you are. Your identity from Me. This means to feel the joy of unlimited Christedness. It means feeling the center of your Twin Flame heart and your weaving in and out of each other, sharing ecstasy. It means feeling the truth of your great vast spirit and the perfection and joy of your clear open heart, and feeling how this makes you available Now to do as Jesus did and more.

Right now. Bathe in the living River of Life beyond all little mind interpretation. Simply stand and resonate the truth of your heart and those you can serve will be drawn to you like magnets, or use another analogy like moths to the flame. I have spoken to you before about acting as if it were already done, that you already are the Master. I have said to you that when you pray, pray in gratitude for the miracles and accomplishments as already done. This is going vertical. Coming to the center to live and serve, and in this, giving shelter through the power of your Love. But I want you to know that I need you to be at the center.”

Who Is Christ?

“Christ is God's Son as He created Him. He is the Self we share, uniting us with one another, and with God as well. He is the Thought Which still abides within the Mind that is His Source. He has not left His holy home, not lost the innocence in which He was created. He abides unchanged forever in the Mind of God. Christ is the link that keeps you one with God and guarantees that separation is no more than an illusion of despair, for hope will forever abide in Him. Your mind is part of His, and His of yours. He is the part in which God's Answer lies; where all decisions are already made, and dreams are over. He remains untouched by anything the body's eyes perceive. For though in Him His Father placed the means for your salvation, yet does He remain the Self Who, like His Father, knows no sin. Home of the Holy Spirit, and at home in God alone, does Christ remain at peace within the Heaven of your holy mind. This is the only part of you that has reality in truth. The rest is dreams.

Yet will these dreams be given into Christ, to fade before His glory and reveal your holy Self, the Christ, to you at last. The Holy Spirit reaches from the Christ in you to all your dreams and bids them come to Him, to be translated into truth. He will exchange them for the final dream, which God appointed as the end of dreams. For when forgiveness rests upon the world and peace has come to every Son of God, what could there be to keep things separate, for what remains to see except Christ's face? And how will this holy face be seen, when it is but the symbol that the time for learning now is over, and the goal of the Atonement has been reached at last?

So, therefore, let us seek Christ's face and look at nothing else. As we behold His glory, will we know we have no need of learning or perception or of time, or anything except the holy Self, the Christ Whom God created as His Son.”

Chapter 14

What Is The Second Coming?

“Christ Second Coming, which is sure as God, is merely the correction of mistakes and the return of sanity. It is a part of the condition that restores the never lost and reestablishes what is forever and forever true. It is the invitation to God's Word to take the illusion's place; the willingness to let forgiveness rest upon all things without exception and without reserve.

It is the all-inclusive nature of Christ's Second Coming that permits it to embrace the world and hold you safe within its gentle advent, which encompasses all living things with you. There is no end to the release the Second Coming brings, as God's creation must be limitless. Forgiveness lights the Second Coming's way because it shines on everything as one. And thus is oneness recognized at last.

The Second Coming ends the lessons that the Holy Spirit teaches, making way for the Last Judgment, in which learning ends in one last summary that will extend beyond itself and reaches up to God. The Second Coming is the time in which all minds are given to the hands of Christ, to be returned to spirit in the name of true creation and the Will of God.

The Second Coming is the one event in time which time itself cannot affect. For everyone, whoever came to die, or yet will come, or who is present now, is equally released from what he made. In this equality is Christ restored as one Identity, in which the Sons of God acknowledge that they are one. And God the Father smiles upon his Son, His one creation and His only joy.

Pray that the Second Coming will be soon, but do not rest with that. It needs your eyes and ears and hands and feet. It needs your voice, and most of all, it needs your willingness. Let us rejoice that we can do God's Will and join together in His holy light. Behold, the Son of God is one in us, and we can reach our Father's Love through Him.”

What Is The Final Judgment?

“Christ's Second Coming gives the Son of God this gift: To hear the Voice of God proclaim that what is false is false, and what is true has never changed. And this judgment is where perception ends. At first, you see a world that has accepted this as true, projected from a now-corrected mind. And with this holy sight, perception gives silent blessings and then disappears, its goal accomplished and its mission done. The Final Judgment on the world contains no condemnation. For it sees the world as forgiven, without sin, and wholly purposeless. Without a cause, and now without a function in Christ's sight, it merely slips away to nothingness. There it was born, and there it ends as well.

And all the figures in the dream in which the world began go with it. Bodies now are useless, and all will therefore fade away because the Son of God is limitless.

You who believed that God's Last Judgment would condemn the world to hell along with you, accept this Holy Truth: God's Judgment is the gift of Correction He bestowed on all your errors, freeing you from them and all effects they ever seemed to have. To fear God's saving grace is but to fear complete release from suffering, return to peace, security, happiness, and union with your own Identity. God's Final Judgment is as merciful as every step in His appointed plan to bless His Son and call him to return to the eternal peace He shares with him.

Be not afraid of love. For it alone can heal all sorrow, wipe away all tears, and gently waken from his dream of pain the Son whom God acknowledges as His. Be not afraid of this. Salvation asks you to give it a welcome. And the world awaits your glad acceptance, which will set it free.

This is God's Final Judgment: You are still My holy Son, forever innocent, forever loving, and forever loved, as limitless as your Creator, and completely changeless and forever pure. Therefore, awaken and return to Me. I am your Father and you are My Son”

Chapter 16

What Is The Ego?

“The ego is idolatry; the sign of a limited and separated self, born in a body, doomed to suffer and to end its life in death. It is the “will” that sees the Will of God as an enemy, and takes a form in which it is denied. The ego is the “proof” that strength is weak and love is fearful, life is death, and what opposes God alone is true. The ego is insane. In fear, it stands beyond the Everywhere, apart from All, in separation from the Infinite. In its insanity, it thinks it has become victor over God Himself. And in its terrible autonomy it “sees” the Will of God has been destroyed. It dreams of punishment, and trembles at the figures in its dreams; its enemies, who seek to murder it before it can ensure its safety by attacking them

The Son of God is egoless. What can he know of madness and the death of God when he abides in Him? What can he know of sorrow and suffering when he lives in eternal joy? What can he know of fear and punishment, of sin and guilt, of hatred and attack, when all there is surrounding him is everlasting peace, forever conflict-free and undisturbed, in the deepest silence and tranquility?

To know reality is not to see the ego and its thoughts, its works, its acts, its laws and its beliefs, its dreams, its hopes, its plans for its salvation, and the cost belief in it entails. In suffering, the price for faith in it is so immense that the crucifixion of the Son of God is offered daily at its darkened shrine, and blood must flow before the altar where its sickly followers prepare to die.

Yet will one lily of forgiveness change the darkness into light; the altar to illusions to the shrine of Life Itself. And peace will be restored forever to the holy minds which God created as His Son, His dwelling place, His joy, His love, completely one with Him.”

Chapter 17

What Is Creation?

“Creation is the sum of all God’s Thoughts, infinite in number, and everywhere without all limits. Only Love creates, and only like Itself. There was no time when all that It created was not there. Nor will there be a time when anything It created suffers any loss. Forever and forever are God’s Thoughts exactly as they were and as they are, unchanged through time and after time is done. God's Thoughts are given all the power that their own Creator has. For He would add to Love by its extension. Thus, His Son shares in creation, and must therefore share in the power to create. What God has willed to be forever one will still be one when time is over, and will not be changed over time, remaining as it was before the thought of time began.

Creation is the opposite of all illusions, for creation is the truth. Creation is the holy Son of God, for in creations is His Will complete in every aspect, making every part container of the Whole. Its oneness is forever guaranteed inviolate; forever held within His holy Will, beyond all possibility of harm, separation, imperfection, and of any spot upon its sinlessness.

We are creation; we are the Sons of God. We seem to be discrete, and unaware of our eternal unity with Him. Yet back of all our doubts, past all our fears, there still is a certainty. For Love remains with all Its Thoughts, Its sureness being theirs. God's memory is in our holy minds, which know their oneness and their unity with their Creator.

Let our function be only to let this memory return, only to let God's Will be done on earth, only to be restored to sanity, and to be but as God created us. Our Father calls to us, We hear His Voice, and we forgive creation in the Name of its Creator, Holiness Itself, holiness His creation shares; Whose holiness is still a part of us."

What Is Salvation?

Salvation is Transcendence. “Salvation is a promise made by God that you would find your way to Him at last. It cannot but be kept. It guarantees that time will have an end and all the thoughts that have been born in time will end as well. God's word is given to every mind which thinks that it has separate thoughts, and will replace these thoughts of conflict with the Thought of peace.

The Thought of peace was given to God's Son the instant that his mind had thought of war. There was no need for such a thought before, for peace was given without opposite, and merely was. But when the mind is split, there is a need for healing. So the Thought that has the power to heal the split became a part of every fragment of the mind that was still one, but failed to recognize its oneness. Now it did not know itself and thought its own identity was lost.

Salvation is undoing in the sense that it does nothing, failing to support the world of greed and malice. Thus, it lets illusions go by not supporting them, it merely lets them quietly go down to dust. And what they hid is now revealed; an altar to the Holy name of God whereon His Word is written, with the gifts of your forgiveness laid before it, and the memory of God not far behind.

Let us come daily to this holy place, and spend a while together. Here we share our final dream. It is a dream in which there is no sorrow, for it holds a hint of all the glory given us by God. The grass is pushing through the soil, the trees are budding now, and birds have come to live within their branches. Earth is being born again from a new perspective. Night is gone, and we have come together in the light.

From here we give salvation to the world for it here salvation was received. The song of our rejoicing is our call to all the world that freedom is returned, that time is almost over, and God's Son has but an instant more to wait until his Father is remembered. Dreams are done, eternity has shone away the world, and only Heaven exists.”

Chapter 19 What Is The Body?

“The body is a fence the Son of God imagines he has built to separate parts of his Self from other parts. It is within this fence he lives, to die as it decays and crumbles. For within this fence he thinks that he is safe from love. Identifying with his safety, he regards himself as what his safety is. How else could he be certain he remains within the body keeping love outside?

The body will not stay. Yet, this he sees as double safety. For the Son of God's impermanence is “proof” his fences work and do the task his mind assigns to them. For if his oneness still remained untouched, who could attack and who could be attacked? Who could be Victor? Who could be his prey? Who could be the victim? Who is the murderer? And if he did not die, what proof is there that God's eternal Son could be destroyed?

The body is a dream. Like other dreams, it sometimes seems to picture happiness. But can quite suddenly revert to fear where every dream is born. For only love creates in truth, and truth can never fear. Made to be fearful, must the body serve the purpose given it. But we can change the purpose that the body will obey by changing what we think that it is for.

The body is the means by which God's Son returns to sanity. Though it was made to fence him into hell without escape, yet has the goal of Heaven been exchanged for the pursuit of hell. The Son of God extends his hand to reach his brother and to help him walk along the road with him. Now the body is holy. Now it serves to heal the mind that it was made to kill.

You will identify with what you think will make you safe. Whatever it may be, you will believe that it is one with you. Your safety lies in truth and not in lies. Love is your safety. Fear does not exist. Identify with love and you are safe. Identify with love and you are Home. Identify with love and find your Self.”

Chapter 20

I Am Not A Body, I Am Free

“Freedom must be impossible as long as you perceive a body as yourself. The body is a limit. Who would seek for freedom in a body that looks for it where it can not be found. The mind can be made free when it no longer sees itself as in a body, firmly tied to it and sheltered by its presence. If this were the truth, the mind was vulnerable indeed!

The mind that serves the Holy Spirit is unlimited forever, in all ways, beyond the laws of time and space, unbound by any preconceptions, and with strength and power to do whatever it is asked. Attack thoughts cannot enter such a mind, because it has been given to the Source of love, and fear can never enter in a mind that has attached itself to love. It rests in God.

And who can be afraid who lives in Innocence and only loves?

It is essential for your progress in this Course that you accept today’s idea, and hold it very dear. Be not concerned that to the ego it is quite insane. The ego holds the body dear because it dwells in it, and lives united with the home that it has made. It is a part of the illusion that has sheltered it from being found illusory itself. Here it hides, and here it can be seen as what it is. Declare your innocence and you are free. The body disappears, because you have no need of it except the need the Holy Spirit sees. For this, the body will appear as a useful form for what the mind must do. It thus becomes a vehicle which helps forgiveness be extended to the all-inclusive goal that it must reach, according to God's plan.

Cherish today's idea, and practice it today and every day. Make it a part of every practice period you take. There is no thought that will not gain thereby in power to help the world, and none which will not gain in added gifts to you as well. We sound the call of freedom around the world with this idea. And would you be exempt from the acceptance of the gifts you give?

The Holy Spirit is the home of minds that seek freedom. In Him they have found what they have sought. The body's purpose now is unambiguous. And it becomes perfect in the ability to serve an undivided goal. In conflict-free and unequivocal response to mind with but the thought of freedom as its goal, the body serves, and serves its purpose well. Without the power to enslave, it is a worthy servant of the freedom which the mind within the Holy Spirit seeks.

Be free today. And carry freedom as your gift to those who still believe they are enslaved within a body. Be you free, so that the Holy Spirit can make use of your escape from bondage, to set free the many who perceive themselves as bound and helpless and afraid. Let love replace their fears through you. Accept salvation now, and give your mind to Him Who calls to you to make this gift to Him. For He would give you perfect freedom, perfect joy, and hope that finds its full accomplishment in God."

You are God's Son. In immortality, you live forever. Would you not return your mind to this? Then practice well the thought the Holy Spirit gives you for today. Your brothers stand released with you in it; the world is blessed along with you, God's Son will weep no more, and Heaven offers thanks for the increase of joy your practice brings even to it. And God Himself extends His Love and happiness each time you say to yourself, "I forgive."

We're Dreaming In Heaven

We designed every single occurrence in our dream, from the moment we were born. Why did our ego make our childhood bully? To make us afraid, to fear. Our spirit taught us, this is something we do not want. After our punch that knocked him down, he was no longer a bully. We learned of our strengths. We had always had it but were just not aware until the circumstance that forced us to use it. Lesson learned, no reason to repeat it.

A Course In Miracles and Disappearance Of The Universe teaches that I am the only one here. Everyone I've known since birth is a figure in my dream. Jesus and I are watching the script of my life, which was over long ago. I Am Christ. And so are you. Let us try to understand, together. We need Divine Wisdom and not our ego's insane perception. Holy Spirit, thank You for leading us to Absolute Truth.

Why did I dream of a loving mother and father? To comfort me, in my subconscious, I knew I had left Paradise. Babies do not come into our dreams happy. Do they? My dream of being a young child playing in the sprinkler, catching lightning bugs, and catchers, hiking, and playing hide and seek, showed me the wonder and fun of playfulness. Why did I dream of being a little boy attending kindergarten for the first day? This showed me I'd be fine meeting new people outside of my protective environment. The dream of learning about Count Dracula who could come into my room on a moonbeam, taught me fear. Crawling between my sleeping parents showed me complete safety. Why did I dream of my first love? My high school sweetheart? She taught me the joy, pleasure, and passion of sex. The excitement when I would see her. Why did I dream of going to college? To open up intelligence I didn't know I had. To understand the satisfaction of striving and achieving. Why did I dream of insanity? The wars, drugs, homelessness, poverty, corruption, crime, abuse, hurt, anger, lies, greed, and hate? To show me what I do not want. The dream of good and trusted friends who lied and stole from me taught me the beauty of forgiveness. My dream of being crushed with a 50,000 horsepower 30-ton overhead crane and living, taught me of miracles. What about doing LSD on the weekends for over a year? I learned of beauty, wonder, joy, and awe that exists beyond my 5 senses. The PCP experience taught me hell is an ego lie. Why did I dream of my beautiful, loving wife of 20 years dying suddenly in front of me? To understand the depth of love. We do not truly understand what we had until we perceive absence.

Why did I dream of you reading this? To experience the joy of the thought of helping another. Extension. Why did I dream of talented, beautiful celebrities? Because at first, I was envious. The beauty was the becoming appreciative of their striving to achieve perfection in their craft. The talent they understood and developed. I feel they understand how blessed they are and they share. Extension. The egotistical ones are blatant. They'll also come to Truth. Why? Truth Is and there is no opposite.

The Call Of The Goddess

When the Goddess calls you Home, you have most likely been deafened to the sound of Her voice. Frequently, the bodies of those who are called to remember the touch of the Goddess have become numb to the feel of Her sacred caress. When Her call comes, it does not announce itself with a pre-written warning of how it will change everything. The Call of the Goddess often comes as a feeling of descending chaos, dissolution, ripping apart, breaking open, breaking down, breaking up. Her call strips all illusions from the energy bodies and blasts open the channels of spiritual awareness.

When you are destined to follow the voice of the Goddess, it usually manifests as life not making sense. This is because there is a more divinely guided course for you to follow than you once believed possible. You have forgotten, to a large extent, what lies within. The daughters and sons of the Great Goddess have been in spiritual exile for many past lifetimes. They have shut down their gifts, hardened their emotional sensitivity, discounted their intuitive radar, and pretended to be satisfied with blending in with the sleeping masses. Most of these people entered this lifetime with a conditioned belief system that they would lead a prosaic, cultivated existence, without resonating to the drumbeat of their souls.

When the Call of the Goddess comes, these people experience some form of deep change in their lives. For most, this involves external conditions shifting considerably, either as a direct hit from the cosmos that feels totally unexpected or unasked for or as a series of unfolding events that create such movement in the energy bodies that carrying on as before is just impossible. It can be a person entering, a person leaving, a financial dissolution, a health issue, an emotional breakdown, or any other combination of intense life changes that stimulate the soul of the person ready to return Home.

The Goddess works in profoundly mysterious ways. She knows who you are, who you were, and who you are destined to become. She knows that your life must receive an electric shock to pull you out of the ego into the world of the Divine. She knows that the breakdowns and deep sense of chaos and unknown pathways bring up fear for you. She also knows that it is the only way to get your attention, to make you realize that what you have settled for before is not enough, and to pull out your ancient mysteries, spiritual energy forces, and divine impulses to serve.

When answering the Call of the Goddess, you will most likely go through a tumbling to the ground of everything you thought was important or the only way that life could work. And all your learned patterns and conditioned beliefs may be challenged. As this rebirth begins, circles of supportive people will be sent to you. These people will have known you before, from your times of being in devotion to the Goddess. Although you will most likely feel scared to open up to the call, you will also notice how the Divine is magically supporting you.

The Call of the Goddess is continuing in great vibrant and unrelenting force at this time. All those who awaken and remember are being touched, one by one. If you are reading these words, there is something that the Goddess wants to touch you with. It is a long-forgotten sweet breath, deeply stirring soul music, the rhythm of Her songs, and the pulse of Her heart. She gives these essences to you through your life experiences. It may be a person who brings this energy to you. It might be a book, a workshop, or a desire to create more meaning in your life. Your life may have already begun disintegrating its old form to be powerfully rebuilt in Her image. Whatever is happening, however, She is showing up, it is Her work, Her hand, and Her guidance that leads you deeper into creating a soul-fused life that centers upon giving it your fullest energy. You have a destiny that is developing and unfolding daily.

Pay attention to your inner urges and impulses. It is the Great Goddess talking to you. It is all your soul has ever wanted, calling you Home.

Chapter 23

The Ancient Song

“Beyond the body, beyond the sun and stars, past everything you see and yet somehow familiar, is an arc of golden light that stretches as you look into a great and shining circle. And all the circle fills with light before your eyes. The edges of the circle disappear, and what is in it is no longer contained at all. The light expands and covers everything, extending to infinity, forever shining and with no break or limit anywhere. Within it, everything is joined in perfect continuity. Nor is it possible to imagine that anything could be outside, for there is nowhere that this light is not. This is the vision of the Son of God, whom you know well. Here is the sight of him who knows his Creator. Here is the memory of what you are, a part of this, with all of it within and joined to all as surely as all is joined to you. Accept the vision that can show you this, and not the body. You know the ancient song and know it well. Nothing will ever be as dear to you as is this ancient hymn of love the Son of God sings to his Father/Mother still.”

Chapter 24

Jesus

Fact! All the armies that ever fought, all the navies that ever sailed, and all the kings and queens and presidents whoever ruled, together, have not affected life on earth as much as the one solitary life of Jesus of Nazareth. Let's find out why. Jesus was born very poor in a stable. His mother Mary was a virgin, she was impregnated by the Holy Spirit. Little is known about his childhood. He was 12 when his parents found him teaching in the temple. He started his ministry at the age of 30 after being baptized by John the Baptist. The Spirit of God descended as a dove and landed on him. Jesus then went into the desert and fasted for 40 days, he was then tempted by the devil. However, this is not true. There is no devil. I believe during his time in the desert he was learning to rely on The Holy Spirit. To listen.

He began his ministry. Over the next 3 years, he turned water into wine, walked on water and calmed a storm, fed 5000 using 2 fish and 5 loaves, healed a man paralyzed from birth, the blind could see, and the deaf could hear, and he raised Lazarus from the dead. At that time, the Jews studied the Torah, which we call the Old Testament. The Jews atoned for sin by offering blood sacrifices. They believed in a judgmental, jealous, and hateful God. God doesn't even know what hate is.

Jesus told a parable called The Prodigal Son. A king's son took his inheritance and went to a faraway land and lost it all due to fast living. During a famine, he was starving, he knew his father's servants lived much better and returned home to beg for forgiveness. His father saw him coming and prepared a feast, for his son had been lost but now is found. The king represents God, the son represents us. Jesus taught God is Love.

After 3 years, he was killed by crucifixion after being brutally whipped, a horrible way to die. He was killed by the Jewish religious leaders for he had said to the paralyzed man, "Your sins are forgiven you." This was the ultimate blasphemy for they believed only God can forgive sin. He was in a tomb for 3 days and 3 nights. During this time, it's believed he was in Hell offering souls freedom due to his sacrifice on the cross. Again, this is not true. On Sunday, Mary, not his mother but his wife, came to anoint his body and he was gone. He had been resurrected. He appeared to his disciples for 40 days and then ascended into Heaven.

When we forgive, we're really forgiving ourselves for thinking we offended God. Christ came into the false universe He made in the form of Jesus. Christ was healed by the Holy Spirit. Who conceived Jesus in Mary's womb? The Holy Spirit. -Bob

Chapter 25

What Is Jesus's Purpose?

This Jesus, once again, is on an entirely different level than the body called Jesus which is portrayed in the gospels. As such, the name of Jesus is but a symbol, but one that stands for the love that is not of this world.

In A Course in Miracles Jesus speaks about himself: I am responsible for the process of Atonement, which I undertook to begin, two thousand years ago in the region of Palestine. The figure we call Jesus manifested this Atonement principle, by virtue of introducing to people the idea that identity is not about a body, but about spirit. Jesus clarifies it that in essence, he does not differ from us, and that he should be regarded as an elder brother. An elder brother is entitled to respect for his greater experience and obedience for his greater wisdom.

Chapter 26

What Is The Holy Spirit?

The Holy Spirit descended on Jesus after he was baptized by John.
“The Holy Spirit mediates between illusions and the truth. Since he must bridge the gap between reality and dreams, perception leads to knowledge through the grace that God has given Him, to be His gift, to everyone who turns to Him for truth. Across the bridge that He provides are dreams all carried to the truth, to be dispelled before the light of knowledge. There are sights and sounds forever laid aside, and where they were perceived before, forgiveness has made possible perception’s tranquil end.

The goal of the Holy Spirit's teachings is just this end of dreams. For sights and sounds must be translated from the witness of fear to those of love. And when this is entirely accomplished, learning has achieved the only goal it has in truth. For learning as the Holy Spirit guides it to the outcome He perceives for it, becomes the means to go beyond itself, to be replaced by the Eternal Truth.

If you but knew how much your Father yearns to have you recognize your sinlessness, you would not let His Voice appeal in vain, nor turn away from his replacement for the fearful images and dreams you made. The Holy Spirit understands the means you made by which you would attain what is forever unattainable. And if you offer them to Him, he will employ the means you made for exile to restore your mind to where it truly is at Home.

From knowledge, where He has been placed by God, the Holy Spirit calls to you, to let forgiveness rest upon your dreams and be restored to sanity and peace of mind. Without forgiveness will your dreams remain to terrify you. And the memory of all, your Father's love will not return to signify the end of dreams has come.

Accept your Father's gift. It is a call from Love to Love, that it be but Itself. The Holy Spirit is His gift by which the quietness of Heaven is restored to God's beloved Son. Would you refuse to take the function of completing God, when all He wills is that you be complete?"

Chapter 27
My Question

I have been mentally wrestling with a specific issue. As I have mentioned, I pray every night, “Holy Spirit, for my highest good and the highest good of all, please grant perfection in listening to the Sacred Silence between my thoughts.”

I find my mind grows quiet and I usually have no questions. One night, what popped into my head was to use logic. A lightbulb went off. I have been gifted with a logical mind since childhood. In college, I aced advanced mathematics; calculus, quantitative analysis, and advanced algebra. Math is a language of sorts and there are no gray areas. I was gifted with the ability to understand math concepts.

The issue I've been wrestling with is why didn't the Prime Creator answer Christ's question, which was like “What would it be like if I were to go off and play on my own?” I understand God did not answer because there is nothing else, but God's perfect creation. Why didn't the Prime Creator tell Christ this? I believe, Ask and we shall receive, Knock and the door shall be opened. This truth has been proven over and over to me. Logic kicked in, and I believe this is the answer.

Father/Mother God Is all-knowing. God did not answer the question because the Source knew what would happen. Christ freaked and made this false universe to hide, because of something previously unknown. Fear. I haven't read this in any literature, but What If? What if at that moment of insanity, Christ was shown all the horror that ever occurred in time? All the suffering. Arten explains Consciousness, the level of perception, was the first split after the separation, making the mind a perceiver rather than a creator. Consciousness is correctly identified as the domain of the ego.

So there we have it. The separation did occur. The Holy Spirit was given and Christ was healed. The separation ended. Wouldn't Christ have a much higher appreciation of Eternal Love because He experienced the opposite? Of course, God knows nothing of this. It's very true, we don't appreciate the love on the mountaintop until we've experienced the perceived loss of love in the valley. Our appreciation of love becomes much deeper and more meaningful because we've had personal experiences of fear and all its fruits.

I speak with Mary Jo every day and periodically dream of her. I find great comfort in the thought, one day closer. One day, closer to what? One day, closer to our magnificent reunion in Heaven. Now there are those who say this will never happen because she was just my dream figure. No, she wasn't, she was her own unique beautiful Self. What is on her tombstone is, Love is Eternal. She is the reason I started writing in the first place. I find it amazing that Jesus and the Holy Spirit have taken a tragedy and are now turning what I experienced into beautiful writings for the sole purpose of helping others. My writings have been a miracle to me for they have greatly helped me understand spiritual truths. When I extend and share these truths I am given more to share, the questions and answers are coming at an extraordinarily faster pace. This is a quite beautiful experience which is very much open to you also.

When I look into Mary Jo's eyes, our love will explode into all of God's Creation. I just know this. No doubt! My parents, my blood relatives, life-long childhood friends, brothers, and sisters I worked with. All of us have helped one another, especially during tragedies. I feel it will be glorious to run into one another in Heaven and share what we learned in our earthly life as well as what we're learning in our Celestial life. Through extension and sharing, we grow.

We are all part of the Mind of God and thoughts leave not their source. If you will, our minds are receivers, God's Mind is a transmitter, however, our minds have to be tuned to the right frequency to understand the transmission. This is the Holy Spirit's job. When we understand, we then transmit and help one another grow. Forever. Don't you feel joy when you help another understand? Why would this not be the same in Heaven?

Chapter 28

Now Is Our Eternal Moment Of Perfection

Who we are now, in this present moment, is not a platform to plan and aspire to a self-defined potential. Who we are now must not be judged as anything other than our eternal present moment of perfection. Creation never ceases. We are constantly evolving and co-creating with God. We are very proficient in re-experiencing the past in the present, but we cannot experience the future in the present because as yet, it has not been created. We are Co-Creators with God, yet we are conditioned to live in the past and project that past onto our present awareness. Truth is, we have infinite potential as a Child of God, but as long as we judge, resist, or reject who we are NOW, we block our awareness of the unlimited potential of our Spiritual growth. We stay locked in a judgmental state of “should be” and block our awareness of “What IS.”

As we learn to accept and love ourselves as being in the perfect place in our journey of awareness of “pure potential,” the past dissolves, the judgment of ourselves also dissolves and a space of “present light” appears in our mind. We could never judge a kindergarten student for not having the knowledge of a college student. Yet, they are both in the perfect place in the journey of unlimited potential. We accept them and love them for who they are, right here and right now. Our “seeming” journey to perfection, (seeming because we are already perfect) begins with the acceptance and loving of ourselves Now. Forgive the past, Accept the present, and leave the Future to unfold as God perfectly scripts it. There is no reason not to aspire to perfection, but the motivation must not be based on the present disapproval of our present state of existence. Yet, this can only occur when we forgive, let go of and look beyond our judgments and evaluation of our present selves. You Are as God created you and this is what it looks like now. Accept that. Love that, for it is the Truth of you.

In the “Clarification of Terms,” Jesus tells us that “The term mind is used to represent the activating agent of spirit, supplying its creative energy. When the term is capitalized it refers to God or Christ, i.e., the Mind of God or the Mind of Christ. Spirit is the Thought of God which He created like Himself. The unified spirit is God’s one Son, or Christ.” Contemplate this message for a moment. How can the creative energy we share with God be known if the mind is unhealed? How can one co-create as one Spirit with God if the mind does not activate Spirit in our awareness? How can any creative energy be utilized if the mind does not activate Spirit? As Jesus points out “Spirit is the Thought of God which He created like Himself.” An unhealed mind can accomplish nothing. Forgive yourself for what you did not do.

You Are a whole and perfect creation of God. You have never lost your perfection as a Creation of God, you are just awakening to It and Your Reality. Accept and Love yourself just as you are and free the mind to activate the Spirit and Truth within you. Welcome the pure potential of your evolving awareness and let the shared Spirit of God guide you. Your so-called “future” can only be experienced Now, in this present moment. Let it unfold before you and be guided only by the inner, instinctive, and intuitive nature of Spirit. Trust your Self and trust God who already knows your perfection and infinite potential.

Stay present in your awareness and let Spirit be your guide. Life unfolds perfectly and peacefully when we do not interject our judgments of what Is. Accept what is as what should be at this moment of your spiritual awakening, not because you like it but because it is guiding you and teaching you. Know that everything we experience is either a lesson or a blessing. Accept both and welcome each one for they are guiding you Home.

Thinking may be necessary in our everyday responsibilities but thinking plays No Part in our Spiritual Awakening. Be present and let all thoughts come to you. We become aware of Spirit only with a still, quiet, present, and open mind. In our relationship with our Holy Spirit, our right-mindedness. Thinking is an obstruction, not an asset. The intellect plays no part in matters of Truth. Truth cannot not be understood, but it can be experienced. Then one experiences the clarity, certainty, and peace it tries to understand. First forgiveness, then understanding.

Accept what is. Accept yourself. You are already exactly where you need to be. This journey is not about attaining perfection. It is about the realization that you already are perfect. Creation never ceases. Who knows what Creation has in store for us. One thing is sure. We can only experience it here and now, not in an imagined future. There is no future, there is only Now. Now is where we eternally reside. As Jesus teaches us, It is our closest approximation to eternity. Start there. It is Home. As Wayne Dyer often said, "We are Spirit having a human experience." It is not the other way around.

Chapter 29

The Disappearance Of The Universe

I highly recommend reading the book “The Disappearance Of The Universe” before reading The Course. This excellent manuscript was written by Gary R. Renard. It is very easy to understand.

It is a record of 17 mind-bending conversations that took place over nearly a decade between Gary and two ascended masters who appeared before him in 1992. They revealed some shocking secrets of existence and taught him the miraculous powers of advanced forgiveness. He was sitting in his home in Maine back in 1992 during Christmas week. He was learning the stock trade and was a professional guitar musician. His wife, Karen, was at work, they have no children. He’s sitting in his living room, looking out the picture window, and two people just appeared. Male and female, Arten and Pursah. This is how the book starts.

When I first read this, I thought, “Yeah, right, this has to be fiction.” It’s non-fiction. What’s most impressive is that this book stays true to the hard-core metaphysics of A Course in Miracles.

Chapter 30

The Purpose Of The Course

The whole purpose of this narrative is to teach you that the ego is unbelievable and will forever be unbelievable. You who made the ego by believing the unbelievable cannot make this judgment alone. By accepting the Atonement for yourself, you are deciding against the belief that you can be alone, thus dispelling the idea of separation and affirming your true identification with the whole Kingdom as it's literally part of you. This identification is beyond doubt as it is beyond belief. Your wholeness has no limits because you are Eternal. -Bob <https://payhip.com/RobertHall> - Free-

What I truly love about A Course In Miracles is there are no grey areas. For example what is true is true and what is false doesn't exist. Practice makes perfect is very true. When I began to live according to the Wisdom taught in The Course my life started to change in a most beautiful way. When we live in the moment, the Eternal Now, what can harm us? Our ego wants us to be living in the past, regretting mistakes or perhaps mourning over a lost love; and more importantly wants us living in the future and being fearful. When we're living in the past or worrying about the future, we're not talking to God. Now.

Isn't it wonderful news that hell doesn't exist and it's impossible to sin against God? Also, that God does not send us trials. How could He if He isn't even aware of our false dream universe?

The only way for you to have the growing joy I'm experiencing is to put the teachings into practice. Then you'll Know. When looking back on your life you may discover what I have. The horrible times were my periods of greatest spiritual growth. Be it loss of a loved one through death or breakup, I now understand it's a minor reliving of perceived loss of the Love of our Creator; which is impossible. We ARE our own worst enemy. Love is not an emotion but the most powerful Force in all creation. We live forever, death is an illusion.

We are ALL limitless and extremely powerful, we have simply forgotten.

Become vigilant ONLY for God and Heaven. This is our True Home, we CAN experience glimpses of Glory here by being more loving and giving.

Most importantly forgive ALL, ALWAYS. By so doing you'll become more awake IN the dream and WILL most assuredly awaken FROM the dream. Allow the Holy Spirit to use time to teach you and others this Truth. God Is. -Bob
